

I hereby will my plantation in Lincoln Co N. C.
and all my property to my beloved wife Lydia Jane Bell.
Provided first that she educate & maintain our dear daughter Effie & any other child that may yet be unborn to us. Provided in the second place that she remain in widowhood, otherwise she will relinquish claim to such part of the property as our child Effie or children would naturally inherit. This is my simple will of earthly goods which God has given me.

whereon I now live, and all my other property of every kind
