

Amicus, divisions 1828

In the name of God Amen
 I Peter Deal being of sound & perfect health do this the 9th day of July in the Year of Our Lord thousand eight hundred and twenty seven make this my last will and testament, in the following words, that is to say, 1st all my property shall remain in the sole possession of my wife Elizabeth Deal so long as she may live to dispose of as and may be to support upon, and my son Simon Deal shall have one cow and have all his increase,

3rd I bequeath that after the death of my wife Elizabeth all the property shall be ^{legally} distributed among my heirs except Harry Deal who shall have for his part five shillings

4th Should the legals disagree in the division of the property each one may choose a man for that purpose which division shall be final in which whereof I have hereunto set my hand and the day and year above written his
