

239. I Peter Lane who have executed the foregoing will, do add the following as a codicil thereto & it shall be a part thereof the Boundaries of the land which I have given to Sam's heirs & Abraham. The fourth line running from the small post oak. S. 20° E. to a saw wood outside of the fence is to run on, passing the saw wood, or from the saw wood be carried in such a manner as to run to a large poplar on the Branch at the meadow & continue on a straight line to the outside line, in order to give Abraham a spring & part of the Branch for water.

The land that I have given to Paul's sons & his heirs, I wish to be equally divided between his two sons Andrew & Elizabeth as tenants in common. but there another matter I wish to have the use of said land so long as she remains in the situation she is now in. But if she should marry or take up with any other man she is to give up the plantation to her said sons immediately. My grand daughter Sarah, Andrew's daughter, I give ten dollars in cash. She is not to have any share of the land I had willed to her father. The Balance of my estate which would fall to Daniel agreeable to the foregoing will, is to be equally divided among his three children above named. He is not to have any

Small post rail, & 20 ft. to a saw wood outside of the fence is to run on, passing the saw wood, & from the saw wood be carried in such a manner as to run to a large poplar on the Branch at the meadow & continue a straight line to the outside line, in order to give Abraham a share & part of the Branch for water.

The land that I have given to Paul & Lucy & his heirs, I wish to be equally divided between his two sons Andrew & Elizabeth as tenants in common. but their mother's wish is to have the use of said land so long as she remains in the situation she is now in. But if she should die or take up with any other man she is to give up the plantation to her said sons immudiately - My grand daughter Sarah, Paul's daughter, I give ten dollars in cash, she is not to have any share of the land I had willed to her father, the Balance of my estate which would fall to David agreeable to the foregoing will, is to be equally divided among his three Children Above named - He is not to have any part thereof - because he has conducted himself so badly, In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand & seal the 5th day of May A.D. 1838.

^{in witness} Daniel Leitch } his Thomas Spratt } Peter & Jane (dear)

260. I Peter Lane of the County of Lincoln & State of North Carolina, being weak in Body but of sound & disposing mind & memory having executed a paper writing purporting to be my last will & testament Dated the 8th May A.D. 1838 signed sealed and acknowledge in presence of Daniel Lumbard & Thomas Spratt who are the subscribing witnesses thereto. But in consequence of some changes having taken place in my family & property I deem it necessary & proper to make some alteration in the ^{distribution} of my property and accordingly execute this as a codicil to my aforesaid will: In the first place I had given to my son Christian Lane a tract of land described in the foregoing will: He has left this section of country & probably never return to live here again. I hereby give to my son John Lane twenty acres off said tract, the line to be extended from his present corner in such a direction so as not to interfere with the house or water on said tract, the same to be laid off joining the tract I have before given John, the Balance of said tract I dispose of as follows. I give it to my two sons Wm. Lant & Solomon Lane as tenants in common and to the other of the said Wm. Lant

The 8th May A.D. 1838 Signed sealed and acknowledge in presence of Daniel Lumsden & Thomas Spratt who are the subscribing witnesses thereto. But in consequence of some changes having taken place in my family & property. I deem it necessary & proper to make some alteration in the ^(distribution) of my property and accordingly execute this as a codicil to my aforesaid will: In the first place I have given to my son Christian some a tract of land described in the foregoing will: He has left this section of country, & ^{will} probably never return to live here again. I hereby give to my son John some twenty acres off said tract, the line to be extended from his present corner in such a direction so as not to interfere with the house or water on said tract, the same to be laid off joining the tract I heretofore given John, the Balance of said tract I dispose of as follows. I give it to my two sons Wendell & Solomon some as tenants in common and one or the other of them may settle them & give the other a part of the land I have heretofore given them so as to make them equal. they may divide the same to suit their own convenience.

259. I Peter Lane who have executed the foregoing will, do add the following as a codicil thereto & it shall be a part thereof the boundaries of the land which I have given to David's heir & Abraham, the fourth line running from the small post oak, S. 20° E. to a tree wood outside of the fence is to run on, passing the same wood, or from the same wood be carried in such a manner as to run to a large poplar on the Branch at the meadow & continue on a straight line to the outside line, in order to give Abraham a Spring & part of the Branch for water.

The land that I have given to Paul Lane & his heir, I wish to be equally divided between his two sons Andrew & Elizabeth as tenants in common, but their mother Mrs. Lane is to have the use of said land so long as she remains in the
situation she is now in. But if she should marry or take up with any other man she is to give up the plantation to her said sons immediately - My grand daughter Sarah, Paul's daughter, I give ten dollars in cash, she is not to have any share of the land I had willed to
her father, the Balance of my estate which
would fall to David agreeable to the foregoing
will, is to be equally divided among his three Children Above named - He is not to have any

Small post oak, & To E. to a Jun wood outside of the fence is to run on, passing the Jun wood, or from the Jun wood be carried in such a manner as to run to a large poplar on the Branch at the
meadow & continue on a straight line to the outside
line, in order to give Abraham a Spring & part
of the Branch for water.

The land that I have given to Paul's Sons & his heirs, I wish to be equally divided between his
two sons Andrew & Elizabeth as tenants in common.
but their mother Mr. By same is to have the use of said land so long as she remains in the
situation she is now in. But if she should
marry or take up with any other man she is to give up the plantation to her said sons immediately - My grand daughter Sarah, Paul's daughter, I give ten dollars in cash, she is not
to have any share of the land I had willed to
her father. The Balance of my estate which would fall to Daniel agreeable to the foregoing will, is to be equally divided among his three Children Above named - He is not to have any
part thereof - because he has conducted himself so
badly. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand & seal the 3rd day of May A.D. 1738.

^{intu} Daniel Lanthorn } his Thomas Spratt } Peter & James (seal) witness

260. I Peter Lane of the County of Lincoln & State of North Carolina, being weak in Body but of sound & disposing mind & memory having executed a paper writing purporting to be my last will & testament Dated the 8th May A.D. 1838 signed sealed and acknowledge in presence of Daniel L. Smith & Thomas Spratt who are the subscribing witnesses thereto. But in consequence of some changes having taken place in my family & property I deem it necessary & proper to make some alteration in the ^{distribution} of my property and accordingly execute this as a codicil to my aforesaid will: In the first place I had given to my son Christian Lane a tract of land described in the foregoing will: He has left this section of country, ^{and} probably never return to live here again. I hereby give to my son John Lane twenty acres off said tract, the line to be extended from his present corner in such a direction so as not to interfere with the house or water on said tract, the same to be laid off joining the tract I heretofore given John, the Balance of said tract I dispose of as follows. I give it to my two sons Wm. L. & Solomon Lane as tenants in common

The 8th May A.D. 1838 Signed sealed and
acknowledge in presence of Daniel Leitch & Thomas Spratt who are the subscribing witnesses thereto. But in consequence of
some changes having taken place in my
family & property. I deem it necessary &
proper to make some alteration in the ^{distribution} of my property; and accordingly execute
this as a codicil to my aforesaid will: In the first place I had given to my son Christian some a tract of land described in
the foregoing will: He has left this section
of country, & ^{will} probably never return to live here
again. I hereby give to my son John some
twenty acres off said tract, the line to be
extended from his present corner in such
a direction so as not to interfere with the
house or water on said tract, the same
to be laid off joining the tract I heretofore
given John, the Balance of said tract
I dispose of as follows. I give it to my two sons Wm. Leitch & Solomon Leitch as tenants in common and one or the other of them may settle them & give the other a part of the land I have
heretofore given them, so as to make them
equal. They may divide the same to suit
their own convenience.

254. I prefer some who have executed the foregoing will, do add the following as a codicil thereto & it shall be a part thereof the boundaries of the land which I have given to Lewis & Abraham, the fourth line running from the small post oak, S. 20° E. to a tree wood outside of the fence is to run on, passing the corner, or from the corner wood be carried in such a manner as to run to a large poplar on the Branch at the meadow & continue on a straight line to the outside line, in order to give Abraham a share & part of the Branch for water.

The land that I have given to Paul's sons & his heirs, I wish to be equally divided between his two sons Andrew & Elyah as tenants in common, but their mother Molly's share is to have the use of said land so long as she remains in the situation she is now in. But if she should marry or take up with any other man she is to give up the plantation to her said sons immediately - My grand daughter Sarah, Paul's daughter, I give ten dollars in cash, she is not to have any share of the land I had willed to her father, the balance of my estate which would fall to David agreeable to the foregoing will, is to be equally divided among his three children above named - He is not to have any

the fence is to run on, passing the summit, or from the summit be carried in such a manner as to run to a large poplar on the Branch at the
meadow & continue a straight line to the outside
line, in order to give Abraham a share & part
of the Branch for water.

the land that I have given to Paul's sons & his heirs, I wish to be equally divided between his
two sons Andrew & Elizabeth as tenants in common.
but their mother Mr. By same is to have the use
of said land so long as she remains in the
situation she is now in. But if she should
marry or take up with any other man she is to give up the plantation to her said sons immediately - My grand daughter Sarah, Paul's
daughter, I give ten dollars in cash, she is not
to have any share of the land I had willed to
her father, the balance of my estate which
would fall to Daniel agreeable to the foregoing
will, is to be equally divided among his three
children above named - He is not to have any
part thereof - because he has conducted himself so badly, in matters whereof I have heretofore set my hand & seal the 3rd day of May A.D. 1838.

^{intwice} Daniel L. L. } his Thomas Sprath } Peter & Jane (dear) mark

60. I Peter Lane of the County of Lincoln & State of North Carolina, being weak in Body but of Sound & disposing mind & memory having executed a paper writing purporting to be my last will & testament Dated the 4th May A.D. 1838 signed sealed and acknowledge in presence of Daniel Lumbert & Thomas Spratt who are the subscribing witnesses thereto. But in consequence of
some changes having taken place in my
family & property. I deem it necessary &
proper to make some alteration in the ^{disposition} of my property and accordingly execute this as a codicil to my afore said will: In
the first place I had given to my son Christian Lane a tract of land described in
the foregoing will: He has left this section of country. & probably never return to live here again. I hereby give to my son John Lane
twenty acres off said tract: the line to be extended from its present corner in such a direction so as not to interfere with the
house or water on said tract, the same
to be laid off joining the tract I heretofore
given John, the Balance of said tract
I dispose of as follows. I give it to my two sons Wm. L. & Solomon Lane as tenants in common

The 4th May A.D. 1838 Signed Seateck and acknowledge in presence of Daniel Lumbard & Thomas Spratt who are the subscribing witnesses thereto. But in consequence of
some changes having taken place in my
family & property. I deem it necessary &
proper to make some alteration in the ^{disposition} of my property; and accordingly execute
this as a codicil to my afore said will: In
the first place I had given to my son Christian Lane a tract of land described in
the foregoing will: He has left this section
of country, & ^{will} probably never return to live here
again. I hereby give to my son John Lane
twenty acres off said tract: the line to be
extended from his present corner in such
a direction so as not to interfere with the
house or water on said tract, the same
to be laid off joining the tract I heretofore gave John, the Balance of said tract I dispose of as follows. I give it to my two sons Wendell & Solomon Lane as tenants in common and one or the other of them may settle them & give the other a part of the land I have
heretofore given them. so as to make them
equal. they may divide the same to suit
their own convenience.

I also give to my son Abraham said, in addition to what I have heretofore given him a quantity of land sufficient to make in all one one hundred and thirty acres. To be run off my Back tract, adjoining what he now occupies and what I heretofore allotted and bequeathed to him: Whereas I had given to my son Solomon in the former will a negro Boy named Joe: I give now said negro Boy Joe to my son Peter said, and in place of Joe I give to my said son Solomon a boy named Sam.

In my former will I had given my son Christian Sam a tract of land (which I have now disposed otherwise) And I had also given him & my son Vincent a negro girl named Bizziah - and if she had children Christian was to have the oldest and Vincent to have Bizziah. She has had one since named Franky. I now give the said child Franky to my said son Christian and one of my children named Julia in lieu of the tract of land I had then bequeathed to him. To my son Solomon I have given a negro boy named Sam and if my girl Bizziah has another child before what he now occupies and what I have now fitted and added to him: Whereas I had given to my son Solomon in the form with a negro Boy named Joe: I give now said negro Boy Joe to my son Peter Lane and in place of Joe I give to my said son Solomon a boy named Sam.

In my form with I had given my son Christian Sam a tract of land (which I have now disposed otherwise) And I had also given him & my son Winchast a negro girl named Gizziat - and if she had children Christian was to have the oldest and Winchast to have Gizziat. She has had one since named Franky. I now give the said child Franky to my said son Christian and one of James's children named Julia in sum of the tract of land I had then bequeathed to him.

To my son Solomon I have given a negro boy named Sam and if my girl Gizziat has another child before my death or before a distribution of my property - my said son Solomon is to have that our above Gizziat and the balance of her increase is to belong to Winchast and his heirs.

62 To my daughter Mary Reeb and her Children I give my negro girl named Bridet.

and to my son John

I give my best waggon and gear and team, because he will have to take care of his mother - he is to have the same one and above what I had given him before.

I hereby publish & declare this to be a part of my last will and testament.

Signed sealed and acknowledged the 4th day of December A. D. 1845

Jacob Reinhardt
Mary Ann ^{his} Reinhardt }
mark

His
John Reinhardt
mark