A paper purporting to be the last Will and Testament of John Kinsland deceased, is exhibited before me, The undersigned Clerk of the Superior Court for said County by Sarah A. Kinsland, and the due execution thereof by the said John Kinsland by the oath and examination of J.W. McDonald and S.J. Ammons, the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn, both before and say, and each for himself depose and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of John Kinsland. And the said John Kinsland in the presence of this deponent subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as afore said, and which bears date of the 10th day of May 1907.

And the deponent further saith, that the said John Kinsland (the testator aforesaid, &c. at the time) of subscribing his name as afore said declare the said paper writing so subscribed by him, and exhibited to be his last Will and Testament, and this deponent thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further saith, that at the same time when said testator subscribed his name to the said last Will as afore said, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, as afore said, the said John Kinsland was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will, and was not under and restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this de-presence of this Deponent subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 10th day of May 1907.

And the Deponent further saith, That the said John Skinsland (the testator aforesaid, &c at the time) of subscribing his name as aforesaid declare the said paper-writing so subscribed by him, and exhibited to be his last Will and Testament, and this Deponent thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this Deponent further saith, that at the same time when said testator subscribed his name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the Deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said John Skinsland was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will, and was not under and restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this Deponent. And further these Deponents say not.
