

the foregoing last will & Testament of William R. Riley late of the District of Columbia, deceased, & personally made oath on the Holy Evangelists of Almighty God, that they did see the Testator therein make & sign this will; that he published, pronounced & declared the same to be his last will and Testament; that at the time of so doing he was, to the best of their apprehension, of sound & disposing mind & capable of executing a valid deed or contract; and that their names as witnesses to the aforesaid will were signed in the presence and at the request of the Testator & in the presence of one another. Sworn in open Court

L. P. Wright

Register of Wills

In the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia:
Special Term for Orphans Court business

In the matter of the estate of William R. Riley deceased.

On consideration of the petition of Elizabeth R. Riley and in appearing to the Court that the will of said deceased dated the 15th day of Jan'y A. D. 1893 has been duly filed & the execution thereof proven by the oath of the three subscribing witnesses thereto & no objection having been signified to the Court in this 27th day of Jan'y A. D. 1893, ordered, adjudged and decreed that the said will be, & the same is hereby admitted to probate & recorded & that letters testamentary do issue to Elizabeth R. Riley, the executrix by said will. Appointed upon execution by her of a bond in the penalty of twenty five hundred dollars conditioned for the discharge of her duties as such executrix.

A. B. Hagner
Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia