

32 Eight hundred and fifteen signed in the presence of us witnesses before a Justice, Benjamin Rogers
 Samuel Rogers

John W. H. Rogers

Allegation made December Term 1815 } This Instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and Testament of John W. H. Rogers was proven in open Court by the Oath of Benjamin Rogers of the subscribing witnesses there to and an election ordered to be recorded

Test J. B. Hunter C/E

State of North Carolina Martin County January 17th 1815
 The Jury certify that I Henry Cockburn of the State and County of on this day being afflicted in body but having my perfect senses helped be good for the same do give & bequeath unto my son Harmon Cockburn all my stocks of hogs one bed stead bed & furniture and all my plows weeding hoes and my axe & one small pot one Chisel and my shirt and corn that was laid up for seven years provision and it is also my will that my daughters Eliza & Elizabeth Cockburn shall live and serve with my son Harmon Cockburn on the provisions then on hand for if they think proper I also give & bequeath unto my son Harmon Cockburn one cow & calf that is now up and I do give and bequeath unto my Daughter Eliza Cockburn one Cow & Calf and one Cow & Lamb that is now up - I also give & bequeath unto my Daughter Elizabeth Cockburn one bedstead bed & furniture one Chisel one Table one Wooden Wheel and one floor wheel and it is also my will that my feathers should be Equally divided between my son Harmon Cockburn and my Daughter Elizabeth Cockburn, I do also wish that my goods should be Equally divided between my Daughter Eliza & Elizabeth Cockburn and I do also give and bequeath unto my Daughter Elizabeth Cockburn one Cow & Calf that is now in the woods and I do also give and bequeath unto my Daughter Harmona planning one hifer and also give and bequeath unto my son Daughter Lanny Lanes one hifer and it is also my will and desire that my property not mentioned in my will should be Equally divided between my son Harmon and my Daughters Eliza & Elizabeth Cockburn and the small part of William that Lanny follows if he should demand it to be raised out of the property

= to be divided between them this is my last will and Testament in writing signed of I have hereunto placed my seal the day and date above written Henry Cockburn
 and I do further appoint my friends Frederick Noah Griffin Cockburn to be my Executors to my last will and here last my and Testament this fourteenth day of April 1815 Test. his Henry X. Hardslip
 mark

Martin County } This Instrument of writing purporting to December Term 1815 } be the last will and Testament of Henry Cockburn was proven in open Court by Benjamin Rogers & Henry Hardslip two of the subscribing witnesses and an election ordered to be recorded, Test J. B. Hunter C/E

I John Guyther of Plymouth N.C. being sensible of the uncertainty of my life and that my Estate may be disposed off agreeable to my wish do hereby declare this to be my last will and Testament To say 1st I give to my son William Guyther my two town Lots in Plymouth his one hundred and fifth acre & one hundred & fifth acre together with all houses and improvements there on also the following Signers viz Harry Graham Ben and Mary 2nd the balance of my Estate of the paying my just debts I wish divided among my wife & the balance of my children agreeable to law - I do here by appoint my friends David Clark & Reuben Carmel my Executors & also Guardians to my children till they arrive of age with full & ample power to sell any parts of my property which they may deem proper to settle my Estate to in all directions & provide for their interest In witness where of I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 10th day of April 1815.
 John Guyther
 George Nicholas
 James Turner

Martin County } This Instrument of writing purporting December Term 1815 } to be the last will and Testament of John Guyther was proven in open Court by the Oath of James Turner one of the subscribing witnesses and an election ordered to be recorded.
 Test J. B. Hunter C/E