In the name of God Amen. I David Olm of the County of Charlottesville & State of N. Carolina, being of sound & disposing mind & memory, Do this 5th day of February in the year of our Lord 1787 make & publish this my last will & testament in manner following that is to say. After all my just debts are paid.
First I give & bequeath unto my loving son in law William Sharpe of Rowan County & to my loving son James Reese all that prebonds in fee simple in the said County of Charlottesville on Coddle Creek whereon I now live with all the appurtenances thereunto belonging To hold to them the said Wm Sharpe & James Reese their Executors Administrators or assigns from & immediately after my decease together with sixty acres or thereabouts adjoining or nearly adjoining below the said Manor plantation, as also an entry or claim to & for a small piece piece of land lying between and adjoining the said sixty acre tract & my said Manor plantation. Upon this special trust & confidence that they the said William Sharpe & James Reese or the survivor of them do & shall permit Reuth^{my dear} my dearly and well beloved wife to have had & enjoy all my Manor plantation & premises to them devised as aforesaid during her natural life & to take to her own use the rents issues & profits arising therefrom during her natural life & to avoid the making no waste nor destruction thereon nor charging any large quantity of land here upon this further condition that she shall not rent, lease or farm out the said land without the advice & consent of the said William Sharpe & James Reese or the survivor of them, and after the decease of my said wife or with her cheerful concurrence carrying life upon this further trust & confidence that they the said William Sharpe & James Reese or the survivor of them shall sell the whole of the land hereon deviseed with all the appurtenances thereunto belonging to be sold to the best credit for the most money that can be obtained, & that the money so arising shall as soon as may be be paid to the following my own namely ten pounds per annum to my beloved wife during her life. Twenty pounds to my son Charles five pounds to my son James & five pounds to my son

This will, The remainder of the money arising as aforesaid to be equally divided between my sons George & Solomon, but in case Solomon should choose his share in land then his equitable share shall be laid off for him by my Executors in lieu of his share of the money above mentioned. To my Grand son Sidney I give & bequeath ten pounds to be paid out of the above mentioned fund, provided my wife & George & Solomon should agree in the matter then George may likewise take his share in land, they first agreeing with my Executors to pay their Mother & the other Legacies herein before mentioned. I further give & bequeath to my beloved wife the largest bay mare her choice of a pair of ~~horses~~ of these sheep & five hogs; also all my bed, clothes, household furniture & vessels of every kind within doors (excepting such as is hereafter bequeathed) to be divided equally at her decease among all my daughters who may be then alive, in case she should die intestate my Executors shall be careful in making an equal distribution of the bed & furniture which is intended by the foregoing clause. To my daughter North I give & bequeath one feather bed and furniture worth two pounds & two shillings. To my son Solomon I give & bequeath a riding horse saddle & bridle. I give and bequeath that my just debt to be paid out of the residue of my estate & the remainder equally divided between Solomon & North, and at my wife's decease the books to be equally divided between Solomon & North.
