

their full & barterable disposal, as holding the whole in trust: yet notwithstanding my will is that all the rest of my children (viz, Richard, Emma, Mary Ann & Ellen) be now & hereafter considered as legatees, that they their mother & Robert all live together and be contented jointly for the general good of the family as long as they continue in their present circumstances; And should the time come that circumstances alter my will is that they be por-tioned off the whole stock in that manner which may appear good and equitable in the judgment of my dear wife & Robert & my Trust friends James Caggett Esq & John Beatty -- And finally I appoint my wife Emma & my dear Robert, Executors & Guardians of this my last will & in full confirmation of the above written I acknowledge & recognize this to be my last will & testament and in writing thereof do hereunto set my hand & seal this 17th day of November. 1895
