

a saddle, three things, to be given to my three sons Joseph & John the plantation where I now live containing the several acres of land to be equally divided between them when they both come of age, not withstanding the said to be subject to the maintenance of the said sons during his life and he and also that my three youngest children be educated by the profits arising from my farm such settling as may be thought proper by my executors — I do give & approve my will hereby provide Moses Gorman & my wife to be my executors of this my last will & testament, & I do hereby disavow all other wills & legacies that might have been made by me & publish & pronounce this to be my last will & testament & no other, as witness my hands this 23^d day of June 1806. — Signed in the presence of

James Neel
William Gleason
William McFarland

Joseph Rogers

My last will and testament
I do first I resign my body to the Lord & my soul to God that gave it. — With respect to my worldly affairs I desire that my Mother with the assistance of Hugh & John and Andrew Henderson to sell as much of my property as will pay my debts & then my Mother to sell the rest of my property, then one half to my Mother the other half between my two sisters Betsy & Polly. I will the above to be in force in her share the 1st 1808
Reuben Ezekiel Robinson } . . . John Robinson

In the name of God Amen, I James Robinson of the County of Rockland & State of S^c Carolina being at present in a very frail & sick State of body, but having the perfect use of my understanding & memory do judge it to be my duty & proper to me to make this my last will & testament for the distribution of that portion of worldly property with