

In the name of God amen. I Robert M'Comb of the State of Massachusetts & County of Middlebury being laboring in years, tho' of perfect mind & memory. Do make & declare this my last will & testament, and it is my desire that it be received by all as such; first I am minded my soul to God who gave it, and my body to the earth from whence it came to be buried in a Christian & decent manner at the discretion of my Executors herein after mentioned, and as to the worldly property I am possessed of I dispose of in the following manner

1st It is my will & pleasure that all my just debts be paid

2^d I bequeath to Elizabeth Black, Robert Morrissey, Andrew Webster & William Hove my debts on loan one dollar each — 3^d I bequeath to my son Robert M'Comb my negro girl Paddy — 4th To my daughter Rachel Neeldy I bequeath my negro girl Peggy together with a bed & furniture consisting of a double covered & double blankets & a pair of fine sheets, likewise a chest of drawers & a large pewter dish and a diaper table cloth — 5th To Elizabeth C. Hove my grand daughter I bequeath my negro woman Lucy — 6th To my daughter Jane Hove I bequeath one hundred & fifty dollars to be given to her by my Executor as her necessity may require but should William Hove her husband return within two years from this time & ~~she~~^{he} should think proper again to live with him, then should any part of the above money remain it shall be given to her two youngest children viz Mary & Elizabeth — 7th The remaining part of the money that I am now possessed of I bequeath to my three children viz Robert M'Comb, Mary Jane & Rachel Neeldy, an equal part each, with this proviso that the part falling to Mary Jane shall be equally divided between her & her daughter Elizabeth C. Hove — 8th The remaining part of my property consisting of the of various household furniture &c. It is my will & pleasure that it be sold & equally divided between my three children viz Robert & Mary & Rachel — The summing total I allow to my son Robert & shall there be any grain on hand at my decease in the field or otherwise I likewise bequeath to my son Robert, my wife him, Jane & Mary to be equally divided between the above three children to feel, when you do, And my body to the earth from whence it came to be buried in a Christian & decent manner at the discretion of my Executors herein after mentioned, And as to the worldly property I am possessed of I dispose of in the following manner

1st It is my will & pleasure that all my just debts be paid -

2^d I bequeath to Elizabeth Black, Robert Morrison, Andrew Johnston & William Hume my sum in some one dollar each - 3^d I bequeath to my son Robert McLeod my negro girl Paddy - 4th To my Daughter Rachel Neillidge I bequeath my negro girl Peggy together with a bed & furniture consisting of a double covered bedstead & blanket, a pair of fine sheets, likewise a chest of drawers & a large pewter dish and a piece of Tule cloth - 5th To Elizabeth McEwen my grand daughter I bequeath my negro woman Lucy - 6th To my daughter Jane Hume I bequeath one hundred & fifty dollars to be given to her by my Executors as her necessity may require but should William Hume her husband return within two years from this time & ~~she~~ ^{he} should think pro-

per again to live with him, then should any part of the above
money remain it shall be given to her two youngest children

viz Mary & Elizabeth - 7th The remaining part of the money

that I am now possessed of I bequeath to my three children viz Robert McLeod, Mary Jane & Rachel Neillidge an equal part

each, with this proviso that the part falling to Mary Jane shall
be equally divided between her & her daughter Elizabeth

McEwen - 8th The remaining part of my property consisting of the
of various household furniture &c It is my will & pleasure that it

be sold & equally divided between my three children viz Robert & Mary & Rachel - The farming tools I leave to my son Robert & should there be any grain on hand at my decease it to be in the field or otherwise I likewise bequeath to my son Robert, my wife Jane, & my daughter

Jane to be equally divided between the above three children viz Robert & Rachel - 9th To my son John I bequeath ten dollars -

I also appoint my son Robert McLeod and ^{executors of this my last} testament John Neillidge & James Neillidge my heirs and the 2^d March 1857

Elizabeth Black
Signed sealed &c in presence of the undersigned Robert McLeod