

In the name of God Amen. First I give & allow my Watch to my brother Robert Boal in Pennsylvania that I give to brother John Boal the thin clothes with the new Leather breeches and Buckskin not made up, two pair of Waxed stockings one fine Hat, the bag more with the white in his hand. To sister Margaret Boal I leave my silver Buckles, to James Boal a white I leave my saddlebags son to John Boal -

That I leave to brother Thomas McKelven the blue suit of clothes that is here & a suit of clothes that is in Pennsylvania also one shirt & one hat and one brown more - That I leave my saddle & bridle to Henry McKelven a child son to Thomas McKelven -

The first thing to be done with the money is to pay me, & next to pay all I am due & to pay there is Mr. Alexander Sturges & there is nine shillings to be paid to Robert Montgomery & six shillings to James Montgomery The money that is due to me that I have no notes for mention here - There is three pounds in Robert McKees hand & 30 in Alexander McKee hand & 20 in Nathan Harkness hand, there is something in John Pines hand, but how much I cannot tell he has paid me ten pounds & when the house is measured it can be told what is remaining - And next I allow all the money to be divided into two equal shares between John Boal & Thomas McKelven the young man

I allow to be sold & the price to be divided equally between the said
