Will of B. F. Coggin.

In the name of God Amen. I, B. F. Coggin of the County of Montgomery and State of North Carolina being when in body, but of sound mind, memory and understanding, praise be to God for the same, do make this my last will and testament, in manner, form and foregoing. I give, devise and bequeath unto my beloved wife Jane Matilda Coggin all my property real, personal and mixed of what nature or kind soever and wheresoever the same shall be at the time of my death during her widowhood, also giving her power to convey and make right to any part thereof or exchange the same for the sale, exchange and comfort of herself and my children and if in case she marries again all the property on hand then to go to my children. I give her the right to use and use any of the property for the use of herself and my children real or personal and I do nominate constitute and appoint my said wife sole executrix of this my last will and testament, hereby revoking and making void all and every other will or wills at any time heretofore made by me and do declare this to be my last will and testament.

Will of
B. F. Coggin

In witness whereof I, Samuel P. Coggin have hereunto set my hand, this the 18th of August 1896.

Signed in presence of.

State of North Carolina ss.
Montgomery County } In the Superior Court
A paper writing purporting to be the Last Will and Testament of B. F. Coggin deceased is exhibited before me, the undersigned Clerk of said Court for said County, by Jane Matilda Coggin the executrix therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said B. F. Coggin is proved by the oath and examination of W. A. Simmons and W. C. Wallace the subscribing witnesses thereto: who, being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself depose and say, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him purporting to be the last will and testament of B. F. Coggin, that the said B. F. Coggin in the presence of this deponent, subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 18th day of August 1896. And the deponent further saith that the said B. F. Coggin the testator aforesaid, did at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by him and exhibited, to be his last will and testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of the said testator.

Will of
B. F. Coggin

And this deponent further saith, that at the said time of deponent's subscribing when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will as aforesaid and at the time of deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto as aforesaid, the said B. T. Coggin was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. But further these deponents say not.

I, Joshua Huley of the County and State aforesaid being of sound mind and memory, but caused being the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my last will and testament.

First- That my executors hereinafter named shall provide for my body a decent burial, suitable to the wishes of my relatives, and friends and pay all funeral expenses together with all of my just debts out of the moneys that my first came into their hands as a part and parcel of my estate.

Item: I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Margaret A. Huley the same tract of land on which we now live, containing eighty five acres more or less during her natural life, and at the death of my wife I bequeath said lands to my son Noah R. Huley and my daughter Sarah E. Hamilton wife of Lee Hamilton, and to Ella Huley the grand daughter of my wife Margaret A. Huley, who now lives with us, jointly and equally, share and share alike; and it is my will and desire, if the said Ella Huley should die before my wife, then the said lands to belong to my son N. R. Huley and my daughter Sarah E. Hamilton, to be divided equally between them, at the death of my wife.

Item: I will and bequeath to my wife at my death three hundred dollars worth of personal property to be laid off and assessed by three competent persons, out of my estate.

Item: I will and desire that my executors sell my tracts of land in Ophir Township
