The People of the State of New York,

By the Grace of God free and independent
To all whom these presents shall come, greeting,
Know ye, That we having examined the records and files in the office of the Surrogate of the County of New York, do find there remaining a certain record of the last Will and Testament and Codicil of Mrs. Walstead, deceased - together with the probate thereof and Letters Testamentary granted thereon (said Will having been duly admitted to probate as a will of real and personal property on the third day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine -)

Jos Walstead,
Will

in the words and figures following to wit -
Be it remembered, That I, John Walstead, of the City and County of New York, in the City of New York, being of sound and disposing mind, memory, and understanding, but aware of the great uncertainty of life, do make, publish and declare this present instrument as and for my last will and testament; hereby revoking and making null and void all former wills and testaments by me at any time heretofore made.
