William McCallum, I will

In the name of God, Amen.

I William McCallum of the County of Montgomery and State of North Carolina being of sound mind and memory but in a feeble state of bodily health, and considering the uncertainty of the length of my probation on earth - do make and publish this my last will and testament ~~that follows~~ that is to say

First My Executor hereinafter named to pay out of the first money that comes into his hands as executor all the Just debts that I may owe at my death.

Second I Give and devise to my beloved brother Edward McCallum my saddle horse and the sum of one thousand dollars in money.

Third My will and desire is, that my executor hereinafter named shall sell and make title to all real and personal property Except the above bequest or lease and here for a term before selling as he may consider best, and all the net proceeds arising therefrom after paying my debts and bequest as above devised to be equally divided between my two beloved brothers David McCallum and Edward McCallum, provided however my executor may if he thinks proper return in his hands the part that may be going to David McCallum for the use of his David McCallum's children and pay each of them their distribution shares as they arrive at twenty one years of age.

Last I do hereby constitute and appoint my beloved brother and trusty friend Edward McCallum my true and lawful executor to execute this my last will and testament ac-cording to its intent and meaning. Hereby revoking all wills and testaments by me heretofore made.

In witness whereof I the said William McCallum do hereunto set my hand and seal - this fourteenth day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty five

John Christian's will

In the name of Almighty and all merciful God, I John Christian of the town of Lawrenceville County of Montgomery State of North Carolina have thought proper to make the following disposition of my estate real and personal.

I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Mary and my son Samuel & Christian my house & lots in the town of Lawrenceville except the Sterling Andrews and McBain houses and lots, also I devise and bequeath unto my wife Mary and son Samuel, my lands on the west side of Lawrenceville down as far as John C. Atkins, Joining William Christian and Thomas Christian and Harborton. also one other tract of land beginning at mouth of the branch above the Berry landing then up the branch to its head then east to Tellman's line, then with Tellman's line to John C. Atkins, line with his line to Rocky Creek, then down the various courses of the creek to the mouth, then up the various courses of the river to the beginning including my mill. I give and devise to my daughter Maria I. McBain to her separate use and benefit the upper half of the Tho. C. Dunn tract of land by running a dividing line beginning at the mouth of the Spring branch near the Blakely landing, then a direct line to Joseph Dunn, & upper corner, near the foot of the naked mountain, then the lines of the Dunn tract to Cox's line, then with his line to the river, then down the various of the River to the beginning to have and to hold the same to the separate use and benefit of her and her heirs. As the balance of the Tho. C. Dunn tract. if George W. McBain dies and shall release my estate from the sum or sums of money for which I am bound, then and in that event I devise the above mentioned balance of Dunn's tract of land to him and his heirs. I give & devise to my son John Lewis Christian a tract of land beginning on the River at Foster Craig, up
