A paper or writing purporting to be the last Will & Testament of W. H. Elliot, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned Clerk Superior Court for said County, by S. D. Leach, the Executor therein mentioned & the true & certain thereof by the said W. H. Elliot, is proved by the oath & examination of J. F. Bagg, of the County of P. P. Thurgood, credible witness, citizen of the Kingdom of Great Britain & County of Dorset, who being duly sworn, says as follows & swears, each for himself, separately & jointly, that he is acquainted with the handwriting of the said W. H. Elliot, having often seen him write & really believe that the name of the said W. H. Elliot, subscribed to the said Will & the said Will itself & every part thereof is in the handwriting of the said W. H. Elliot & it is further proved by the evidence of the said last witness that the said handwriting is generally known to the acquaintances of the said W. H. Elliot & it is further proved by the oath & examination of S. D. Leach, who after being duly sworn says that the said Will was found among the valuable papers & effects of the said W. H. Elliot after his death. It is therefore considered by the Court that the said paper writing is the last Will & Testament of the said W. H. Elliot, & the same is ordered to be received & filed as such & subscribed before me, this 20th day of November, 1887.
