

North Carolina } Superior Court.
Montgomery County } Before Clerk.

In re. Will of John Barroughs.

Upon the consideration of the foregoing affidavit it is considered by the Court.

That the will be probated and recorded in Record of Wills pp 298-299-300-301 purporting to be the last will and testament of John Barroughs was revoked & its admission to probate was in error and is therefore revoked.

That the letters testamentary issued to A. P. Leach, Esq. thereon are hereby revoked.

That the said A. P. Leach Account to the Administrator hereafter to be appointed for all his receipts and that in said account to be allowed all his disbursements made in good faith and his resignation is accepted to take effect upon said accounting when he will be relieved of all further liabilities and duties.

W. R. Harris. C. L. C.

State of North Carolina } Montgomery County }

In the name of God Amen. I, Harrison O. Sedberry of the County and State aforesaid being weak in body but of sound mind and memory and understanding do make this my last Will and Testament in solemn and free following: that my executors hereafter mentioned shall provide for my body a decent burial or table & the expenses of my relations and pay all funeral expenses together with my just debts out of my estate.

I give devise and bequeath unto my beloved wife Laura Jane Sedberry and my step son William J. Scarboro and their heirs and assigns forever all my property, real and personal and mixed of what nature or kind soever and wheresoever the same shall be at the time of my death, share and share alike. My will and devise is that in case of my wife Laura J. Sedberry should marry again no part of my estate shall be except to the benefit of her husband but remain to her only use during her life, and I do nominate constitute and appoint my said wife and William J. Scarboro my said step son executors of this my last Will and Testament.

In witness whereof I the said Harrison O. Sedberry have hereunto set my hand this April 3rd A. D. 1890.

Harrison Sedberry.

Signed, declared and published by the above named Harrison O. Sedberry as and for his last Will and Testament in the presence of us who at his request and in his presence have subscribed our names as witnesses thereto.

 A paper purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Harrison S. Sedberry deceased is exhibited before me the undersigned Clerk Superior Court of said County by Laura Sedberry and Wm. J. Scarborough the executor and executor therein mentioned and the due execution thereof by the said Harrison Sedberry by the oath and examination of John B. Penhaly and A. J. Furr, the subscribing witnesses thereto who being duly sworn, both depose and say, and each for himself depose and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper, writing now shown him, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Harrison Sedberry, that the said Harrison Sedberry in the presence of the deponent subscribed his name at the end of said paper, writing which is now shown as aforesaid and which bears date of the 3rd day of April 1890.

And the deponent further saith that the said Harrison Sedberry the testator aforesaid did at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid declare the said paper, writing as subscribed by him and exhibited to be the last Will and Testament and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will as an attesting witness thereto and at the request and in the presence of the said testator. And this deponent further saith that at the said time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto as aforesaid, the said Harrison Sedberry was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will and was not under any restraint to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent: And further these deponents say not.

Solemnly sworn & subscribed
