Montgomery County... In the Probate Court
In the matter of the will of $\frac{3}{3}$ Before L. L. Wade D. C. McAulay $\frac{3}{3}$ Judge of Probate

James A. McAulay being sworn, doth say: That D. C. McAulay, late of said County, is dead, having first made and published his last will and Testament, and that H. A. McAulay, James A. McAulay, S.C. Ingram are the executors therein named.

Further that the property of the said D. C. McAulay consisting of personal and real estate is worth about $7000.00 as far as can be ascertained at the date of this application; and that Maggie A.
Ingram, D. J. Hunter, H. A. McAulay and M. C. McAulay, are the parties entitled under said will to the said property.

McAulay D. C.
Will

I, D. C. McAulay of the County of Montgomery and State of North Carolina being of sound mind and memory but conscious of the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death and wishing to give direction to the disposition of my property after my death, do make publish and declare the following to be my last will and testament. Nowit

I. It is my will and desire that all my just debts shall be paid as soon as practicable after my decease.

II. It is my will and desire that my beloved wife P. G. McAulay shall have the entire use and management of all my property (save and except my life policy in the Virginia Life Insurance Company which I wish to be disposed of as directed in said policy as my heirs are or shall become of age) during the term of her natural life.

III. It is my desire that all my business shall go on and be conducted upon the same plan upon which it is now conducted or as nearly as as practicable under the immediate conduct of my son James A. McAulay under the general supervision, advice and consent of my dear wife P. G. McAulay during the term of her natural life and upon her decease it is my will and desire that my whole property shall be equally divided among my children (to wit, Maggie A.
Ingram, D. J. Hunter, H. A. McAulay, W. Frank McAulay & M. C. McAulay).

IV. I desire that my son H. A. McAulay and my daughter M. C. McAulay shall have equal educational advantages with the rest of my children as well as an equal part in the remainder of the property.

V. It is my desire that none of my property either personal or real shall be charitable except upon the advice and consent of my wife during her natural life my meaning and intent is that the estate shall be managed in her interest and she shall be the beneficiary of its fruits so long as she shall live and that her desire and advice shall be respected in all its management.

VI. I desire that none of my property shall

McAulay D. C.

be exposed to public sale during the lifetime of my wife.

7th It is my desire that my son James A. McAlay shall be suitably compensated for his services the character of which is indicated above.

8th I now make constitute and appoint my true and faithful brother H. S. McAlay and my son James A. McAlay & C. Ingram as my lawful executors in the execution of this my last will and testament and in its execution I desire a kindly difference to the wishes of my life companion P. G. McAvay and a majority of the executors shall govern in any matter of controversy.

In testimony whereof I have set my hand and affix my seal this April 21st 1882.

Montgomery County ss. In the Probate Court

A paper purporting to be the last Will and Testament of David L. McAlay deceased, is exhibited before me the undersigned, Judge of Probate for said County, by J. A. McAlay one of the executors herein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said David L. McAlay by the oath and examination of H. S. Ingram & C. Harley, the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself deposes and saith that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him purporting to be the last Will and Testament of D. L. McAlay that the said David L. McAlay in the presence of this deponent subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 21st day of April 1882.

And the deponent further saith, that the said David L. McAlay the testator aforesaid, did at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid declare the said paper writing so subscribed by him, and exhibited to be his last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of the said testator. And this deponent further saith, that at the said time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said David L. McAlay was of sound mind and memory of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint to the knowledge information or belief of this deponent. And further these deponents say not.

McAlay D. L.
