In the name of God Amen. I John Corrough of the County of Montgomery & State of North Carolina being of sound mind and memory do hereby make do this the 16th day of November A. D. 1878 make and publish this my last will and Testament in manner as follows, that is to say I give unto my son Elijah B. Corrough and his heirs fifty cents in lawful currency. To my son James Corrough and his heirs fifty cents in lawful currency. To my son John Corrough and his heirs fifty cents in currency. To Nathan Logan and his heirs fifty cents in lawful currency. The reason of the above gifts is I think that the above named children have had their share of my Estate. My will is that all the lands that is not divided of belonging to one of my death & I equally divided between my wife Elizabeth Elizabeth Eagle, Sarah L. Human, Martha Deaton, Hannah, Mr. Reid and Mary & Corrough and their heirs, share and share alike.

My household and kitchen furniture with all my stock farming tools including all my personal property to be equally divided between my son Elijah Corrough and Louisa Human and their heirs. The above written in consideration of the uncertainty of this frail and transitory life.

In witness whereof I the said John Corrough have to this my last will and Testament set my hand and seal.

John Corrough (Sd)
 Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said John Corrough to be his last will and Testament in presence of us.

In re of the estate of John Broughton, dec'd }

A. P. Leach exr. of John Broughton deceased, being duly sworn says that at the time he procured the will of the said John Broughton for probate and took out letters testamentary he did so in good faith believing the same to be valid. That he has since learned that the said will was revoked by the marriage of the deceased which occurred some time or three months after the execution of the same.

That the purpose of this affidavit is to acquaint this Court with the facts that it may take such action in the premises as is just and that the said A. P. Leach may be relieved from further duties and responsibilities under the same.
