

State of North Carolina,
Montgomery County, In the Probate Court.

A paper purporting to be the Last Will and Testament of Charles McKinnon deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned Clerk, Superior Court, by Amelia McKinnon the executrix therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Charles McKinnon by the oath and examination of E. Newley & L.P. Boyd the subscribing witnesses thereto, who, being duly sworn, each depose and say, and each for himself depose and say, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and testament of Charles McKinnon; that the said Charles McKinnon, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 9th day of Oct. 1866.

And the deponent further saith, that the said Charles McKinnon the testator aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing as subscribed by him and exhibited, to be his Last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of the said testator.

And this deponent further saith, that at the said time, when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will as aforesaid, and at the time of deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Charles McKinnon was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. And further these deponents say not.
