I, Larissa Lucas of the County and State aforesaid being in good health and of sound mind and memory, praise be to God Amen, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence do make and declare this my last will and testament in manner and form following that is to say that my executor shall provide for my body a decent burial suitable to the wishes of my relatives and friends and pay all my just debts howsoever and to whomsoever owing out of the moneys that may first come into his hands as a part or parcel of my estate. I do also for and in consideration of the Natural Love I have for my son Anderson Lucas will and bequeath to him his heirs and assigns forever all the tract or parcel of land known as my home place where I now live containing about one hundred acres adjoining the lands of F. H. Arman, W. M. Arman, and others also a tract known as the mill tract containing thirty acres, the said W. M. Coyle mill place also one other tract of land lying on the waters of Little River in Randolph County in said State containing eighty acres. I do also will and bequeath to my son Anderson all my horse stock of whatever kind I may have all my cattle, all my hogs, half of my sheep, my wagons, all my farming tools of whatever description, all my corn, wheat, meat or provisions of any kind, all my fowls of whatever kind and all my household and kitchen furniture of whatever kind except my loom, my wheel, one bedstead, feather bed and bedding, one chest and all the contents of my property of whatever kind or description it may be either real or personal not otherwise mentioned to belong to my son Anderson. I do also for and in consideration of the natural love I have for my daughter Dicy L. Arman wife of George W. Arman will and bequeath to her all my undivided interest in all the lands of Sarah Stark that I have any interest in at her death forever and my daughter Dicy her heirs and assigns. I do also will and bequeath to my daughter Dicy half of my sheep, my loom, my wheel, one bedstead, and bedding, one bed, one feather bed, one chest and one chest to have and to hold the above named property forever her heirs and assigns. I do also for and in consideration of the natural love I have for my son Nelson will and bequeath to him one dollar in gold and lawful money to have and to hold him his heirs and assigns forever.

A paper writing purporting to be the Last Will and Testament of Louisa Lucas, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by the executor therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Louisa Lucas is proved by the oath and examination of Fra Freeman and Emsey K. Arman two of the subscribing witnesses thereto; who, being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself depose and say, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him purporting to be the last will and testament of Louisa Lucas, deceased, that the said Louisa Lucas in the presence of this deponent, subscribed her name at the end of said paper writing, now shown as aforesaid, and which was done at the 18th day of March 1897.
And the deponent further saith, that the said Louisa Lucas, the testatrix aforsaid, did, at the time of subscribing her name as aforsaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by her and exhibited, to be her last will and testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto and at the request and in the presence of the said testatrix. And this deponent further saith, that at the said time when the said testatrix subscribed her name to the said last will as aforsaid, and at the time of deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforsaid, the said Louisa Lucas was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. And further these deponents say not.
