Will of Nancy J.
Hulien

A paper writing, purporting to be a copy of the last will & testament of Nancy J. Hulien dec'd is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of Superior Court for said County, by J. M. Reynolds the executor therein mentioned, & the due execution thereof by the said Nancy J. Hulien is proved by the oath and examination of J. E. McGehee and H. L. Moore the subscribing witnesses thereto, who, being duly sworn, both depose and say, and each for himself depose and say that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown (purporting to be a copy of the last will & testament of Nancy J. Hulien) that the said Nancy J. Hulien in the presence of this deponent, subscribed her name at the end of said paper writing, now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 22nd day of February 1905. And the deponent further swears that the said Nancy J. Hulien the testatrix aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing her name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing as subscribed by her and exhibited, to be her last will and testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request & in the presence of the said testatrix. And this deponent further swears that at the time when the said testatrix subscribed her name to the said last will as aforesaid, and at the time of deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Nancy J. Hulien was of sound mind & memory, of full age to execute a will, & was not under any restraint to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent: And further that deponents say not.
