to be the Last Will and Testament of Henry Saunders deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned Clerk of the Superior for said and the due execution thereof by the said Henry Saunders is proved by the oath and examination of John H. Brown and D. A. Beau the subscribing witnesses therein: who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself depose and saith that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him purporting to be the Last Will and Testament of Henry Saunders. That the said Henry Saunders in the presence of this subscribing his name at the end of said paper writing, now shown as aforesaid, and which bears the date of the 24th day of February 1893. And the deponent further saith, That the said Henry Saunders, the testator aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing to be subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last will and testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will as an attesting witness therein, and at the request and in the presence of the said testator. And this deponent further saith, that at the said time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness therein, as aforesaid, the said Henry Saunders was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent: And further these deponents say not.
