North Carolina
Montgomery County In the Superior Court

A paper writing purporting to be the last Will & Testament of H. H. Eller, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned Clerk wherein he went to said County, the 8th day of December, 1887, the execution wherein mentioned & the time & situation therein by the said H. H. Eller, is proved by the oath & examination of J. A. Bryan, W. Wilson & P. F. Moore, all credible witnesses, citizens of the town of Troy, State of North Carolina, & being duly sworn, did say & do say each for himself, witnesseth, that he is acquainted with the handwriting of the said H. H. Eller, having often seen him write & verily believe that the name of the said H. H. Eller, subscribed to the said Will & the said Will sets & every part thereof is in the hand writing of the said H. H. Eller, & it is further proved by the evidence of the above last witness that the said hand writing is generally known to be the handwriting of the said H. H. Eller, & it is further proved by the oath & examination of B. D. Leake, who after being duly sworn say that the said Will was found among the valuable papers & effects of the said H. H. Eller after his death. It is therefore considered by the court that the said paper writing is the last Will & Testament of the said H. H. Eller, & the same is ordered to be recorded & filed sworn to & subscribed before me, this 30th day of November, 1887.
