

And my son Hugh Kelly, after the death of my wife
 Our Negro Girl named Hannah Item & I ordain that all property real or personal not above named shall be sold by my Executors and after selling all the debts the balance to be equally divided among my heirs

Item 9th I will and desire that the share or Legacy given each or either of my children should they or either of them die without lawful issue shall be equally divided among the surviving or their lawful issue

And I hereby nominate & appoint my beloved wife Nancy my son Hugh and Archibald to be Executors to this my last will and testament hereby revoking all other and former wills made by me at any time heretofore in writing whereof I have made set my hand and seal this 18th of January 1847 Test H Matheson Hugh & Kelly
 D McLeod mark

Monroe County Court April Term 1851

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Hugh Kelly, sen was brought into Court by Hugh Kelly Jr & Archibald Kelly two of the Executors therein named and said paper writing was duly admitted to probate by the oath of H Matheson one of the subscribing witnesses thereto who deposed that said instrument was admitted in his presence and in presence of the other subscribing witness by said testator to have been executed by him for the purposes therein named that said testator at the time he made said admissions was of sound and disposing mind and memory whereupon said paper writing was duly admitted to probate and ordered to be recorded in the Book of wills and filed in the office of the clerk of this Court Wm Hancey Kelly who was appointed

Executor by the last will and testament of Hugh Kelly relinquishes her right to Qualify as Executor to this same and Hugh Kelly and Archibald Kelly Executors therein named came into open Court and were duly qualified as Executors to said will
 A. B. Cunningham

Alexander McIntosh Will

In the name of God Amen I Alexander McIntosh of the County of Monroe and State of North Carolina Being of sound mind and memory calling to mind the mortality of my body do hereby publish and declare the following disposition of my real and personal Estate to be my last will and testament Item first I give and bequeath to my son William McIntosh three hundred and twenty five and a half acres of Land whereon he now lives lying on both sides of the big Pocket Creek joining the lands of Kinneth McIntosh Melmon McIlwain and others as will show to his satisfaction on number one and two Melmon shows Plot for the same in running the said Land

Item 2d I give and bequeath to my son Duncan McIntosh three hundred and fifty three and a half acres of Land, lying on both sides of the big Pocket Creek being a part of the aforesaid tract which I bequeath to my son William McIntosh which will appear By number three on the aforesaid Plot of Melmon shows also One hundred acres of Land which I intend myself in two Centies fifty acres in each tract and granted to myself on the east side of the big Pocket Creek and joining my own Land and William Petty

Land also one hundred acres of Land which is of the speculation Land which I purchased of Allen McEnnon lying on the water of Patterson Creek joining John I. Helms & others.

Item third I give and bequeath to my son Rodrick McIntosh three hundred acres of Land in Cumberland County lying on both sides of Crains Creek joining the Land formerly belonging to John Shaw & others.

Item fourth I give and bequeath devise unto my grand son Alexander Wicker two and thirty three acres of Land lying on the East side of the Big Pocket Creek consisting of four tracts, to wit, the first is fifty four acres in the Old place where I formerly lived the second tract is fifty acres lying South East of said fifty four acres and joining the same the third is twenty nine acres lying North ^{West} of said old tract and joining the same and Daniel McIntosh's Land the fourth tract is fifty acres of Land joining the said twenty nine acres which I will to the said Alexander Wicker for him to have when he will arrive to the age of twenty one years of age. And my will is that if the said Alexander Wicker should die without an heir of his own body then the said Land which I will to the said Wicker, then and in that that case the said Land to return to my three sons, jointly to share and share alike in the value of said Land, that is to say William M. McIntosh Rodrick McIntosh and Duncan Munro McIntosh.

Item fifth I will and bequeath to my sonless Daniel W. Wicker the sum of five dollars to be paid to him by my Executors.

Item sixth I further devise to my son Duncan Munro McIntosh fifty dollars in money my Blacksmith tools and family Bible.

Item seventh I give and devise unto my beloved wife Christian McIntosh during her natural life the use of the Plantations whereon I now live, and stock of all kinds, and every thing belonging to my Estate at my death which was not heretofore mentioned and disposed of will be at her disposal. Also my Negro man Dugel after her death if the said Negro Dugel had rather live with either of my sons than let him be sold and the money be divided amongst my three sons, that is William McIntosh Rodrick McIntosh and Duncan Munro McIntosh for each of them to share alike in the value of said Negro Dugel if the said Dugel make choice to live with either of the boys let him be valued or agree amongst themselves and the one that will have him pay over to the other to the other two their proportionable part of his valuation. I nominate and appoint my beloved sons William M. McIntosh Rodrick McIntosh and Duncan Munro McIntosh my Executors to carry this my last will and testament into effect Ratifying and confirming this my last will and testament in testimony thereof I hereunto set my hand and seal this the fifteenth day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand and forty five.

Witness

Gilbert McRae

C. McIlwain

Alexander ^{his} McIntosh ^{mark}

Moore Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions
April Term 1851

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Alexander McIntosh deceased was offered for probate in Open Court William R. Benson Daniel McDonald and William Barritt Esquires being upon the Bench and Gilbert McRae an Advocate McIlwain the subscribing witnesses thereto first being duly sworn upon the Oath