State of North Carolina
Moore County

Benjamin Shields in his dwelling house and during his last illness made the following Moncupative will - He desired that his youngest son Patrick should have a sufficient quantity of his property to make a share equal in value with what the said Benjamin had given to his other sons - and that a share should be laid off to his youngest daughter of equal value with what the other daughters had already received - and that after the making out the two shares as above mentioned, his desire was, that the remainder of his estate both Real and personal, should be equally divided among all his eight children, share and share alike - He also desired, that his two sons Archibald and Cornelius should administer on his estate aforesaid - This day came before me Melly Shields and James Harden and made oath, that this was Benjamin Shields deceased.
