James Monk's Will

I James Monk of the County of Moore State of North Carolina, of very feeble body, but of sound mind and memory, blessed be God for his kind and tender mercies but knowing that the time of my departure is near at hand I do make and declare this my last will and testament

I know that I have but few worldly goods to dispose of, but before I depart hence, I desire to make my wishes known I wish my daughter Sarah to be my Executor, and I wish her if it be in her power to pay off all my last debts of every description but I know she cannot do so without selling a part of what little property I have & I hope some friend will aid her and assist her I leave it altogether to herself to judge what she shall sell, either a part of the land or stock of cattle hogs or Sheep & when she sells enough to pay off all my last debts the balance to be all her own & her stock of every description house hold & kitchen furniture farming utensils &c. to be hers to support her during her natural life, and if there is any thing left she can will it or give it to any one she may think proper this is my wish and my request and I do hope that some friend will aid her and assist her to receive enough to support during her natural life In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand this 6th day of February 1849
