

Norman Ferguson's Will writing and every part thereof is the last will and testament of the said Norman Ferguson and the same is ordered to be recorded and filed. And whereas the said Alexander Ferguson, executor, was found duly qualified as Notary taking the oath required by law.

I, A. M. McVille Esq

James Worthy's Will

I James Worthy of the County of Moore and State of North Carolina, being of sound mind and memory do make and publish this my last will and testament in manner and form following that is to say

Item 1st I desire that my executors (hereinafter named) shall provide for my body a decent burial suitable to the wishes of my relations and friends, and pay all funeral expenses, with my just debts, to whomsoever they may be owing, and out of any money that shall first come into their hands as part or parcel of my estate.

Item 2^d I give and devise to my beloved wife Sally during the term of her natural life all that tract or parcel of land on which I now reside or herein reside containing five hundred and Sixty Acres more or less originally in two tracts but required by me as one.
And after the death of my wife Sally I give and devise the said described land to my four daughters by my last will and testam., Mary the wife of William A.
Phillips, gone the wife of Easton Thompson, Amanda the wife of Samuel E. Johnson and Nancy Worthy to be equally divided among them. My wife is that my daughter Nancy Worthy has the lot on which my dwellings are situated,

Item 3^r I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Sally my negro boy Rocco a boy about twenty five years and my negro boy Jerry aged about nine years and my negro girl Alice aged about sixteen

James Worthy's Will

Years and One half, his choice, of my stock two cows and calves, his choice of my stock, and one head steer head and furniture, and the ninth gift, dollars of such other furniture as he may like, and five hundred dollars in Money, all of which property I desire she may dispose of at her death as she thinks proper.

Item 4^t I have already given to my beloved son Thomas Worthy a tract of land by deed on the Goshen's Creek in said County which I intended for his share of my real estate and hope he will be therewith contented.

Item 5th I give and devise all the balance of my land not herein disposed of situated on the waters of the Goshen's Creek about a & half tract on the waters of Dunham's Creek known as the Pleasant old place to my daughter by my first wife, Louisa, Eliza the widow of August Lea Hill, Catherine the wife of John McDonald and Margaret the wife of Joseph J. Mengel to be equally divided among them three and share alike; And if by some said division any of my daughters die leaving heirs of her body, I desire the share of such child to go to the heirs of her body aforesaid, and should any of my daughters die without leaving any heir or heirs of her body at the time of such division then I desire her share of said land to go to her sister and the heirs of any deceased sister in manner as aforesaid.

Item 6th My will and desire is that all the balance of my estate not herein disposed of before be distributed by my executors (hereinafter named) into Money upon such terms as will best account the entirety of my estate, and that the proceeds of money after paying all my just debts be equally divided and paid over as soon as practicable to all my beloved children son and daughters share and share alike (subject to provisions and limitation hereinofore mentioned); and should any of my children die before

James Worthys' Will

Said devise is made leaving an heir or heir of his or her body, I desire that said heir or heirs take the same share that his, or her ancestor
- or, would have taken had he or she been living.
Am 7th I will, desire and bequeath to my beloved daughter Amanda Johnson, wife of Samuel E Johnson and to the heirs of her body all that part of my estate that is intended for her and that which falls by the provision of th, my will to have and to hold the same to her and their sole and separate use and benefit.
The said estate or property hereby devised and bequeathed to my said daughter and her heirs of her body as aforesaid with its profits and income, wherever the same may at any time be invested, is not subject or intended to be subject to any of the present or future debts contracts or liabilities of Samuel E Johnson the husband of my said daughter, Lastly I do hereby constitute and appoint my son Kenneth H Worthys and my son in law Samuel E Johnson executors of this my last will and testament to execute the same according to law hereby revoking all other wills by me hereafter made.

In witness whereof I James Worthys do hereunto set my hand and seal this the 26th day of February 1864.

Signed Sealed published and James Worthys (Seal) declared by said James Worthys to be his last will and testament in presence of us whom his request and in his presence do subscribe his name as witnesses.

Hugh Leach
Geo. S Cole,

North Carolina Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions March 20th A.D. 1864
I, J. P. J., writing purporting to be the last will and testament of James Worthys, doth hereby publish for probate in open Court by Kenneth H Worthys & Co Johnson the executors therein Named, and the due execution thereof by the said James Worthys is proved by the oath and examination of Hugh Leach and Geo. S Cole the subscribing Witnesses thereto. It is further considered by this Court that the said subscribing and every part thereof is the last will and testament of the said James Worthys and the same is ordered to be recorded & filed. And thereupon the said Kenneth H Worthys and Samuel E Johnson the executors aforesaid duly qualified as such by taking the Oath required by law.

J. H. McNeill C.C.S

Daniel Chisholm's Will

The last Will and Testament of Daniel Chisholm I Daniel Chisholm of the State of South Carolina and the County of Monroe Considering and Knowing the uncertainty of Human life and to all earthly things and being of sound body and mind depository make under this my last will and testament

First I desire that my executors hereinafter mentioned and appointed shall at my death give me a decent and respectable burial, and pay all the necessary funeral expenses out of my estate. Secondly I desire that all my just and lawful debts which shall be legally due at my death, and which shall be lawfully established, shall be paid.

Thirdly I give and bequeath unto all my nephews and nieces the names being Children of my Sisters, Rachel and Polly French, Peggy McLeod Malcolm McLeod, Isabella French, and Phillip Matheson the children of my sister Rachel, are the first three and the last named, a child of my sister Polly to all and each one share and share alike all my trout of land upon which I now reside at the head Waters of Branting Creek, adjoining the lands of Maurice Maddill, and Containing