

Abram Stalls Will

Therein named as open Court disclaims his right to Qualify as Executor thereto and Abram Williams the other Executor therein named was duly qualified as Executor of said Will in open Court

A. H. McNeill C.C.

Nancy McLean Will

In the Name of God Amen,
I Nancy McLean of the County of Monroe and State of North Carolina Considering the uncertainty of this mortal life and being of perfect and sound mind and memory do hereby be Almsy God for the same do make and publish this my last will & Testaments in manner and form following namely

I give and bequeath to my beloved Children namely Son Kenneth McLean Christian McLean, Nancy McLean and my beloved grand daughter Martha Virginia McLean the following personal property namely, Half doz Chairs one pot & oven four head of Cattle Lot of Brooks One Crop Cut Saw One Bed and bedstead with its furniture one Spinning Wheel some pair of Cords to be Equally divided among them I hereby appoint my beloved Son Kenneth McLean Executor of this my last will and Testament In Testimony of my Intent in this I hereunto set my hand and seal
Nancy McLean Seal

We the undersigned hereafter subscribe our names as Witnesses in the presence of Witnesses in the presence of this Testator this 3rd day May 1815 Worshipful Ray
D Graham

Nancy McLean Will

Moore County Court July Term 1866

A paper writing purporting to be the last will and Testament of Nancy McLean dec'd is exhibited for probate in open Court and the due execution thereof by the said Nancy McLean is proved by the oath and examination of Cornelius Ray & Dugan De Graham, the subscribing witnesses thereto. It is therefore considered by the Court that the said paper writing and every part thereof is the last will and Testament of the said Nancy McLean and the same is ordered to be recorded and filed

A. H. McNeill, C. C.

Thomas Cox's Will

I Thomas Cox of the County of Moore and State of North Carolina being of sound mind and memory but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence do make and declare this my last will and Testament, in manner and form following that is to say first that my Executor hereinafter named shall provide for my body a decent burial suitable to the wishes of my relations and friends and pay all funeral expenses together with my just debts howsoever and to whomsoever owing out of the first money that may come into his hands as a part or parcel of my estate

Item I give and devise to my son John H. Cox my daughter Eleanor Douglass Canalis Morris, my sons William A. Cox Elias Cox and my daughter Nancy Kelly One thousand dollars to be equally divided between them in place of any part of my lands or real estate.

Item I give and devise to my son Henry A Cox the Tract of land on which he now lives One hundred acres.

Item I give and devise to my son Thomas Cox One Ten hundred acres adjoining the land he now owns beginning at the line near A. H. McNeill and running straight across to the back line towards Turquills McNeill, taking the eighty two acres first & making out the complement of the balance.

Item I give and devise to my son Rufus Cox all my lands on the West side of the Road adjoining my sons Henry A. Cox and Thomas Cox

Item I give and devise to my son Joseph Cox my lands on the east side of