

Moore County Court April Term 1845.

The Execution of the foregoing will was duly proven and admitted to probate by the Oaths of Willm. Donald and John B. Black, two of the subscribers being witnesses thereto, and ordered to be recorded -

And it is recorded in Book B. in words at full length
A. C. Curry Clk.

John McNeill the Executor, appointed by said will came into open Court and was duly qualified as Executor according to Law.
A. C. Curry Clk.

Nathan Morgans will

In the name of God Amen. I Nathan Morgan of North Carolina Moore County - Being of sound and perfect mind and memory Blessed be God. do this the 2nd day of August in the Year of our Lord One thousand Eight hundred & forty five, do make and publish this my last will and Testament, in manner as following, that is to say - first I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Elizabeth and my two youngest sons George & Nathan all of my lands that I now own, and all the Buildings and all the buildings that is on the Land, and all the Household & Kitchen furniture And all of my stock of horses & cattle and hogs and sheep, and all of my tools - I give and bequeath this property to my wife Elizabeth till her death or as long as she stays single - But if she marry again she is to have none of it. But the two boys is to have all of it after her death or marriage, for the two boys George & Nathan to divide the Land and House and furniture Between themselves for George to have One half and Nathan the other half to hold and to have as long as they both shall live, And if One of them should die for the other to have it all, as witness whereof I the said Nathan Morgan have to this my last will and Testament set my hand and seal the day and year above written Signed sealed published & his and declared by the E. Nathan Nathan X Morgan Morgan the testator as his last mark will and Testament in the presence of us who were present at the time of signing & sealing thereof -

Continued

Witness
Jm. J. Morgan
Intell. McNeill

Moore County Court July Term 1846

The Execution of the foregoing will was duly proven in open Court and admitted to probate by the Oaths of Jm. J. Morgan and Intell. McNeill the subscribers being witnesses thereto, and ordered to be recorded - And it is recorded in Book B. pages 150, 160 in words at full length.
A. C. Curry Clk.