

Thos. J. Olegg's Will

Moore County Court 10 October Term 1862
A paper writing purporting to be the last will and Testament of Thomas J. Olegg deceased is exhibited for probate in open Court by Isaac N. Olegg the executor therein named and it is thereupon by the Oath of A. H. McKill proved that B. R. Huske one of the subscribing witnesses thereto is dead and it is further proved by the Oath and Examination of the said A. H. McKill that he is well acquainted with the handwriting of the said B. R. Huske having often seen him write and that the name of the said B. R. Huske subscribed as witness to the said will is in the hand writing of the said B. R. Huske, and further the due execution of said will by the said Thos. J. Olegg having been proved by the Oath and examination of A. H. McKill the only subscribing witness thereto.

It is thereupon Considered by the Court that the said paper writing, and every part thereof is the last will and Testament of the said Thos. J. Olegg and that the same is ordered to be recorded &c. And thereupon the said Thos. J. Olegg executor as aforesaid, duly qualified or such by taking the Oath required by Law.

A. H. McKill Clerk

Thomas Fry's Will

North Carolina Moore County

In the name of God Amen
I Thomas Fry being of sound mind and memory but feeble of body and knowing that it is appointed for man to die, do make and publish this to be my last will and Testament (to wit):

In the first place I will and desire that my Executor hereinafter named shall Collect all debts that may be due to me at my death and pay all debts which I shall justly be owing and also my funeral expenses Secondly I will and desire after paying said debts that my beloved wife have inherit and possess all my estate both personal and real estate during her natural life to use the same said property both real and personal as she may think fit during her life time Thirdly I will and desire after the death of my beloved wife should there be any of this my said Estate left and remaining, that my grand daughter, Betsey Medling shall inherit the same both real and personal and I hereby give and bequeath all my estate as aforesaid in this my last will and I further will and desire that John McKill shall execute this my last will and do hereby nominate and constitute and appoint him John McKill my Executor my Executor to this and hereby revoking all former wills by me heretofore made published signed sealed and delivered this 1st day of Sept 1861.

In the presence of
J. H. McDonald
John McKill

Thomas Fry (Seal)
1861

Moore County Court January Term 1863
The within paper writing was exhibited for probate in open Court and the due execution thereof being proved by the Oaths of J. H. McDonald and John McKill the subscribing witnesses thereto it is adjudged by the Court that the said paper writing is the last will & Testament of Thomas Fry dec'd It is ordered that the same be recorded whereupon the Executor therein named was duly qualified.

A. H. McKill Clerk