In The Name of God Amen. I Condary O'Neal of the State of North Carolina and county of Nash being of sound and perfect mind and memory but weak in body, blessed be God, do this the 12th day of October in the year of our lord 1832 make and publish this my last will and testament in manner following.

First, My will is that my executor advertise and sell at public sale all my stock of horses, cattle and all my crop of corn and fodder, hogs and sheep with all my household and kitchen furniture, and all my working tools of every description and pay all my just debts.

Secondly, I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Lucy O'Neal four hundred and eighty two acres of land the plantation whereon I now live to her and her heirs forever. Provided that my stock and other chattell property should not sell for money enough to pay all my just debts and if not my will is that my executor sell or rent my lands above mentioned at a private or a public sale after advertising agreeable to law and all the money arising from such sale over and above paying my just debts to be paid over to my wife as aforesaid to her and her heirs forever.

Thirdly, My will is that whereas I hold an entry on a certain tract or parcels of vacant land lying and being in the State aforesaid and in the county of Johnston in the possession of one Richard Mason that my executor proceed to have the said land surveyed and get a grant for the same and I give and bequeath the said land to my beloved wife Lucy O'Neal and to her heirs forever. And I hereby make and ordain my worthy friend Stephen O'Neal executor of this my last will and testament.

In witness whereof I the said Condary O'Neal have to this my last will and testament set my hand and seal the day and year above written.

Condary O'Neal (Seal)
