

State of North Carolina } In the Probate Court
Wash County }

A paper purporting to be the last will and testament of Willis Warren deceased is exhibited before me the undersigned Judge of Probate for said County by Seymour Warren the executor therein mentioned and the due execution thereof by the said Willis Warren by the oath and examination of Geo W. Lewis and Mary J. Lewis the subscribed witnesses thereto who being duly sworn doth depose and say and each for himself depose and say, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him purporting to be the last will and testament of Willis Warren that the said Willis Warren in the presence of this deponent subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing which was shown as aforesaid and which bears date of the 30th day of August 1886. And the deponent further saith that the said Willis Warren the testator aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing as subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last will and testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto and at the request and in the presence of the said testator. And this deponent further saith that at the said time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will as aforesaid and at the time of deponent subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto as aforesaid the said Willis Warren was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will and was not under any constraint to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. And further these deponents say not.
