September 13th day one thousand seven hundred and eighty nine this day Benjamin Ricks Joel Ricks, and Abraham Ricks came before me within about fifteen hours after the death of Thomas Ricks and made oath that his will and request as touching his worldly estate is as followeth; first he desired his just debts to be paid.

Secondly: he desired all the rest of his estate real and personal to be equally divided between his wife Priscilla and his son Alexander Urban and his daughter Milberry between them their heirs and assigns forever. and said deceased further requested that his father in law Roland Williams and his brother Abraham Ricks might act as executors.
