A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of R. D. Deans deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said county, by Rogziah Deans the executrix therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said R. D. Deans is proved by the oath and examination of Ch. H. Bridger the subscribing witnesses thereto: who, being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself depose and swear that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him purporting to be the last will and testament of R. D. Deans that the said R. D. Deans in the presence of this deponent, subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing, now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 9th day of March 1892. And the deponent further saith, that the said R. D. Deans
