

J. H. Cooper, being of sound mind and memory, makes this my last Will to Wit. I give to my wife Nancy H. Cooper One hundred dollars in consideration of her relinquishing all right in law and equity support the same being agreed between us. I desire my property to be equally divided between my children, and as the R. Cooper has had what I consider an equal part I shall give him nothing. Also Thomas J. Cooper has had one hundred and twenty dollars therefore he must account for that much before he can get any thing. I consider that Mrs. Thomas, Belle, Trinity, has had a bed Valued at thirty dollars, it is my will that each of the other children shall have a bed and chairs and chairs a little, as above.

January 29th 1884.

J. H. Cooper
