

State of North Carolina
Cash County,

In the Probate Court.

A paper purporting to be the last will and testament of Sarah L. Hicks deceased is exhibited before me, the undersigned Judge of Probate for said County, by D. S. Hicks the executor therein mentioned and the due execution thereof by the said Sarah L. Hicks at the oath and examination of W. H. Harper & W. H. Robbins the subscribing witnesses thereto, who, being duly sworn, each depose and say and each for himself deposes and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him purporting to be the last will and testament of Sarah L. Hicks that the said Sarah L. Hicks in the presence of this deponent subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing which now shown as aforesaid and which bears date of the 5th day of April 1884, and the deponent further saith, that the said Sarah L. Hicks the testator aforesaid did at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid declare the said paper writing as subscribed by him and substitute to be his last last will and testament and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of the said testator, and this deponent further saith, that at the said time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will as aforesaid, and at the time of deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Sarah L. Hicks was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will and was not under any restraint to the knowledge or belief of this deponent, and further that the deponent's say not.

In the name of God Amen, I, William H. Harper of the County of Cash and State of North Carolina, being of sound mind and memory but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make, declare and publish this my last paper writing to be my last will and testament in manner and form as follows, I give and bequeath to my grand daughter Elsie Taylor one bed, two steel mattresses one sheet and one bed quilt it being the bed I now use,

Item 2nd

I leave to my daughter Sarah Hicks all my other personal property, of every kind whatever for the term of her natural life.

Item 3rd

At the death of my daughter Sarah Hicks I give and bequeath to my grand daughter Elsie Taylor and Geo. Harper all the property herein named to my daughter Sarah Hicks to be equally divided between them.

Item 4th

I hereby nominate constitute and appoint my grand son Henry H. Harper and my friend Wm. P. Griffin my executors to this my last will and testament to execute the same and every part thereof. I witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this the 9th day of May 1884.
