

Subscribing witnesseth that he who being duly sworn doth depose and say and each for himself deposeth and saith that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him purporting to be the last will and testament of Joel Barnes. That the said Joel Barnes in the presence of these deponents subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing, which now shown as aforesaid and which bears date of the 3^d of November 1879 And the deponent further say that the said Joel Barnes the testator aforesaid died at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid declare the said paper writing so subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last will and testament and these deponents did thereupon subscribe their names at the end of said will as attesting witnesseth thereto, and at the request and in the presence of the said testator. And these deponents further say that at the said time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will as aforesaid and at the time of deponents subscribing thereto as attesting witnesseth thereto as aforesaid, the said Joel Barnes was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will and was not under any restraint to the knowledge information or belief of these deponents And further these deponents say not

William J. Tupper (Qual)
A. W. Bridges (Qual)

I, being sworn and subscribed, this the 23^d day of October
1885 before me
John Morgan
Probate Judge

I Thomas Mills of the County of Nash and State of North Carolina being sick in body but sound of mind and disposing memory do make public and declare this to be my last Will and Testament in the following manner. That is to say I do my Executor herein after mentioned & shall provide for my body a decent burial suitable to the worth of my relatives and friends and pay all toward expenses together with my just debts and whences ever owing out of the first money that may first come into his hand or held or part of my estate 185- I give to David Mills my brother all of my estate land household and kitchen furniture at my decease also my farming utensils. I do hereby appoint my trusty friend David Mills my lawful Executor to to all intent and purpose this my last will and Testament according to the meaning of the same, whereof I Thomas Mills have this day set my hand and Seal this the 21st of August 1885. I declare this to be my last will and Testament i subscribe our hand as witness here to Thomas Mills (Qual) Attest

W. W. Manning
John E. Manning

State of North Carolina } 83 on the Probate Court
Nash County }

A paper purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Thomas Mills Decedent is exhibited before me, the undersigned Judge of Probate for said County the Executor therein mentioned and the due execution thereof by the said Thomas Mills by the oath and examination of W W Manning and John E Manning the subscribing witnesseth thereto: Who, being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself deposeth and saith that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Thomas Mills that the said Thomas Mills in the presence of these deponents, subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing which now shown as aforesaid and which bears date of the 21st day of August 1888 and the deponents further say that the said Thomas Mills the Testator aforesaid did, at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by him and exhibited to be his said Will and Testament and these deponents did thereupon subscribe their names at the end of said Will as attest witnesses thereto, and at the request and in the presence of the said testator and the deponents further say that at the said time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of deponents subscribing thereto, no attorney witness or trustee as aforesaid, the said Thomas Mills was of sound mind and memory of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint to the knowledge, information or belief of these deponents, and further, these deponents say not.

752

W. W. Manning (test)
John E. Manning (test)

Sincerely sworn and Subscribed, this the
3^d day of November
1888 before me
Jno. T. Morgan
Probate Judge

753

1st2^d3^r4th

State of North Carolina }
Nash County }

I know all owing I John E. Matthews being of sound mind and memory do make and declare this my last Will and Testament in manner and form following

That my Executor hereinafter named shall collect all rents notes and accounts which shall be due me, and that they shall sell as much of my property as may be necessary to pay my just debts including my burial expenses I give devise and bequeath unto my beloved wife Nancy Matthews all & my property of every description. That Person & Number, of whatever nature or kind it may be to have and to hold and to use as she chooses during the term of her natural life subject only to the provision above made for paying my just debts.

That after the death of my wife Nancy Matthews or in case I shall survive her, after my death, that is to say, after the death of both myself and wife, my Executor, hereinafter named, shall sell to the highest bidder, on such terms as they shall deem best, after first advertisement of thirty days, all the property of every description belonging to my estate, real, personal, and moveable, including all equities and securities which may belong thereto, and that they shall divide the proceeds of such sales equally among the following named of my children, to wit, my son John A. Matthews, My son Jas. C. Matthews, My son Isham E. Matthews, My son Robert R. Matthews, My son Charles H. Matthews, and my daughter Delia Batchelor, or among their respective heirs or assigns.

Believing that in advances already made and expenses paid by me for them, my sons W. H. & Matthews, B. F. Matthews and Wiley P. Matthews have already advanced as much of my estate as they deserve, I give them part of my property,