

In the name of God Amen. I Anne Twilly, being weak, of body, but of sound mind and memory, thanks be to God for the same, do make this my last Will and Testament, that is to say, I do give, will and bequeath to my beloved daughter Dolly Davis, one shilling sterling, and I also will and bequeath to my beloved grand daughter Mary Parker, to wit, as follows, two cows and calves, one sheep, three feather beds and furniture, and all my household and kitchen furniture, all my notes, bonds, accounts, debts due or demands in any way whatsoever, this 6th day of February 1819.

Signed in presence of Joseph Parker
William King

Anne & Twilly (Seal)
mawby

New Hanover County } County Court,
May Term 1819

The execution of the within Will of Anne Twilly was proved by Joseph Parker, and ordered to be filed.

Witness

Thos. H. Davis. Clk

My last Will and Testament, I give, devise and bequeath three fourths of all my estate of every kind whatsoever, except as is hereinafter specified, to my nephews Moses John DeKopet and Armand Mrs DeKopet, my grand son Henry Toomey, and my friend William Lord, their heirs, executors and administrators forever, in trust and confidence, to and for the uses, intents, and purposes hereinafter expressed, and to and for another use, intent or purpose whatsoever, to and for the sole and separate use of my daughter Mary F Lord, the widow of the late Mrs B Lord, during her natural life and in the event of her marrying again, not to be under the control, or in any way subject to the liabilities, contracts or incumbrances of a future husband, but to remain to her sole and separate use, notwithstanding the coverture, during her life as aforesaid; and at the death of the said Mary F Lord, should she die, leaving children surviving her, at the time of her death, then to and for the use of such children, their heirs, executors and administrators forever, to be equally divided among them share and share alike, as tenants in common; and if she should leave but one child surviving her at the time of her death, then to and for the use of such child, his or her heirs, executors and administrators forever. And in case the said Mary F Lord should die, without leaving issue surviving her, at the time