

State of North Carolina

New Hanover County Court June Term 1856

This paper writing purporting to be the last will & Testament of James C. Hastler is exhibited in open Court and offered for probate and is duly proved by the Oath of Wm. Wright one of the subscribing witnesses thereto and as such considered by the Court to be & contain the last will & Testament of J. C. Hastler and sufficient to convey the bequests therein made and ordered to be recorded & filed at the same time. William Kellogg the executor therein named appeared in open Court & was duly qualified. Teste

Samuel R. Printing Co.

November 24th 1855

State of North Carolina

New Hanover County

J. C. Henry of the State & County above mentioned do give to my daughter Thankful Mary Ellen Henry all the Land that I now own. And I give to her my Negro property Jote & Peter Mary And her children and their increase. This property is to belong to my daughter Thankful Mary Ellen Henry and her children and if she dies and leaves no children this property is to be equally divided among my brothers and sisters and my wife's brother and two sisters. All the property that I have not mentioned is to be sold and the money to educate my daughter Thankful Mary Ellen Henry. I do hereby appoint James W. Olmunt my executor to this my last will and Testament.

E. L. Miller
Joseph A. Shreve

C. D. Henry

This paper writing purporting to be the last will & Testament of Charles D. Henry deceased is exhibited for probate in open Court by James W. Olmunt the executor therein named and the due execution thereof by the said Charles D. Henry is proved by the Oath and examination of E. L. Miller and Joseph A. Shreve the subscribing witnesses thereto. It is therefore considered by the Court that the said paper writing and every part thereof is the last will and Testament of the said Charles D. Henry and the same is ordered to be recorded & filed and thereupon the said James W. Olmunt executor as aforesaid duly qualified as such by taking the oath required by law.

Teste

Samuel R. Printing Co.