

State of North Carolina
Pitt County

I Henry I Doole Planter of the State and County above written mind full of the great uncertainty of life do make and declare my last will and testament as follows.

In the event of my death I wish to be buried near my wife Yanker Hall.

I wish my Executor hereinafter named as soon as convenient to sell all the personal property which I now or may possibly also my lands in Tennessee and after paying my just debts to invest with the advice of the Guardian of my Children hereinafter named, the dividend in the Stocks of the Bank of the State of North Carolina.

I wish my executor in selling my slaves to select him and masters and to separate kindred as little as possible.

I give to Josiah Lawrence of Tarboro all the property I own in New Hanover County North Carolina in Trust, that he sell the same whenever in his judgement it is most prudent to do so, and pay over the proceeds to the Guardian of my Children.
