

In the name of God Amen: I, Jacob Eason being of sound mind and memory, do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament in manner following, that is to say, First I give and bequeath unto my wife Rozannah Eason, one bed, bedstead and furniture, one loom and gill, one hand mill, two year old hogs, her spinning affiair, also plentiful of corn and meat for her provisions for one year. Secondly, I give to my son William Eason which I leave by my wife Rozannah, the remainder of my estate when sold, to him and his heirs, administrators and assigns forever. Provided my Executors shall retain in their hands the said amount after his schooling untill he arrives at the age of twenty one year old. And I leave my worthy friends John Bunting and John Pate Executors to this my last Will and Testament. Signed, sealed and delivered as my last Will and Testament in presence of this 18th of December, 1822

Thos H Davis. Clerk

In the name of God Amen. I, Joseph Eagles of the County of New Hanover, in the State of North Carolina, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do publish and declare this instrument of writing to contain my last Will and Testament. In witness whereof, it is my desire that my Executors hereinafter named shall pay off my debts, as soon as they can effect the same, and to enable them to do which, I do hereby give them full power and authority, to sell and dispose of as they or a majority of them, or the survivor or survivors of them may think proper, any part of my estate real or personal. And it is my wish also that my Executors if they should think proper, continue to work my lands with my slaves, as I myself might do were I living. I give, devise and bequeath unto my beloved wife, over and above that portion of my estate, she may be entitled to by the laws of the State, my house and lot in the town of Wilmington, together with my household and kitchen furniture, and
