

State of North Carolina

Surry County Court September, Year 1838

State of North Carolina

I Jesse Hardison of the County of Surry and State aforesaid being of sound mind and memory Considering the uncertainty of this life do make publish and declare this my last Will and Testament.

I give and bequeath to my daughter Misty Bishop during her life time the plantation on which she now lives known as my Barlow place including the dwelling house and all other appurtenances thereto belonging and at her death to be equally divided as hereafter directed.

I give and bequeath to my Grand Son John T Bishop One half of his Holland point land to be on the western side and lying on Mill Creek to commence at the Sound and run up to the head line of said Holland point land.

I Give and bequeath to my Grand Son Jacob Bishop the remaining half of said Holland point land together with the eastern half of the plantation on which his Mother Misty Bishop now lives at her death to have and to hold to him and his heirs in fee simple forever.
The remaining of half of said place on which Misty Bishop now lives. I give and bequeath to John T Bishop at the death of his Brother to have and to hold to him and his heirs in fee simple forever. It is further my will that in case of the death either John Bishop or Jacob Bishop without leaving lawful heirs that said lands willed them by me go to the surviving Brother John Bishop or Jacob Bishop as the case may be leaving out in this part also my grand son Jesse Bishop. I give and to my grand daughters Mary E Batson and Cely Anderson one thousand dollars each to be paid them by my Executor in money or good notes to that amount. It is furthermore my will that if after paying all just claims against me, paying my funeral expenses and giving off the debts herein mentioned there should be a surplus found not killed by me that it be equally divided between my four grand children John Bishop, Jacob Bishop, Mary E. Batson, and Cely Anderson. And I do Constitutionally and affix my ring and my Grand Son John T Bishop my Executor to all intents and purposes to execute this my last

Will and Testament, hereby revoking all other conveyances by me made heretofore made. In witness whereof I the said Jesse Hardison have to this my last will and testament set my hand and seal this the 25th day of August, One thousand eight hundred & fifty seven A.D.

David J. Nixon
A. M. McKinnon

Jesse Hardison

State of North Carolina

New Hanover County Court. September Term 1858.

This paper writing purporting to be the last will and Testament of Jesse Hardison is exhibited in open Court and Offered for probate and is duly proved by the oaths of David J.
Nixon and A. M. McKinnon, the Subscribing witnesses thereto and as such Considered by the Court to be and Constitute the last will and Testament of said Jesse Hardison in every respect and Sufficient to convey the bequests therin made. Let the same be registered & filed At the same time Will King one of the executors therin named appeared in open Court and was duly qualified as such according to Law. And John Bishop the other executor came into Court and renounced his executorship.

Past

Sam'l Bunting attk

State of North Carolina

I William A. Rook of the Town of Wilmington State aforesaid being of sound mind and memory, but Considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence do make publish and declare this my last will and Testament in manner & form following hereby revoking and making void all former wills by me at any time heretofore made.

It is my will and I hereby direct that my executors, herein after named shall pay all my just debts out of the moneys that shall first come into their hands as part and parcel of my estate, and after the said debts shall have been paid. I desire that my executors shall erect a tomb or monument over my grave with an iron fence around the same. The costs of which tomb or monument and fence, shall not exceed the sum of five hundred dollars.
I give and bequeath to my Sister Harriett wife of Josiah