 the residue of my lands, lying on the north side of the North East branch of the river Cape Fear and not and ~~not~~ included in the previous devise to him; said residue intended to embrace the tract of land usually called by me the Atkinson place the same having been conveyed to me by Daniel Atkinson and containing about six hundred & forty acres; and also the following named negroes viz;

 Abel, Kitty, Ann, Arnold, Patsy and Joe and such other children as the said Cloe Ann may have prior to my death; which said land and Slaves together with with shall be preserved untouched during her natural minority.

 named Charlotte, Flora, and Gilbert. These three slaves are not estimated by me as of any great value, but they have been
