

In the name of God Amen. I, John R London being sick, and uncertain of the issue thereof, but of sound & disposing mind and memory, do make and publish the following last will and Testament,

First. I will, devise and bequeath unto my Executors herein after named, and the survivor of them, all my estate real & personal (except that portion hereinafter named and otherwise bequeathed and devised) to be by them sold and disposed of in fee; or so much thereof as they may deem expedient; and on such terms as they may think fit; for the purpose of paying all my just debts ready. I will, devise and bequeath all my estate real and personal after the payment of my just debts (except that portion hereinafter named and otherwise bequeathed and devised) to be equally divided among my wife and children; the division not to be made until my youngest child shall arrive at the age of nine years; my wife to have the sole receipt and disposition of all the profits thereof, until my youngest child shall arrive at the age of nine years.

3rd. I give and bequeath unto my wife and her heirs, all my household and kitchen furniture, books, horses, cattle and other live stock and carriages of all descriptions.

4th. I give and bequeath unto my Mother in law Mrs Ann London and her heirs the sum of one hundred dollars, to be paid her as soon as practicable. I also give and bequeath to her, the rent of my corner store (being the corner store only) now occupied by Henry A London, and also the rent of the room on Market Street next adjoining Col Thos Bowman's brick building, during her natural life. And whereas I am entitled to a small undivided portion of my father's real estate; I give and devise the use of said portion to my said Mother in law during her natural life; and thereby authorize and empower her, to devise the same in fee to such of her children as she may think fit, after her death.

Lastly. I appoint Marsden Campbell and William C Lord Executors of this my last will and Testament.

Signed, published and declared to be the last will and Testament of John R London on 23rd Novr 1832

In presence of
Wm Belmeares
A J DeKopet

John R London

State of North Carolina } County Court
County of New Hanover } March Term 1833

The execution of this the last will and Testament of John R London was proved by A J DeKopet subscribing witness and ordered to be filed and recorded: at the same time Marsden Campbell and William C Lord qualified as Executors thereto.

Witness

John W Stanley. Clerk