

April Term 1785

The within last Will and Testament of the late John Lillington was exhibited in Court, and there being no evidence thereto, John Hay, esquire and Mr A Wilkings being sworn, deposed that they believed the name signed John Lillington, was the proper hand writing of him the said John. Also that the whole was the hand writing of him the said John Lillington. Therefore ordered that letters issue agreeable to the said will.

Thos MacLaine. Ck

North Carolina }
New Hanover County }

Personally appeared before me one of the Justices of the peace for the County aforesaid, Mary Lillington Executrix of the annexed last Will and Testament of John Lillington deceased, and took the oath of an Executrix in due form of law.

Wilmington 7th April 1785

Jno Herges. J.P.

New Hanover County } County Court May Term 1811

The execution of the last Will and Testament of John Lillington was proved by John Lord, who swore he believed the signature and the writing of the whole will was in the proper hand writing of the said John.

Witness

Thos H Davis. Ck

State of North Carolina }
New Hanover County }
Town of Wilmington }

In the name of God
Andrew S. Jonathan S. Long
of the county and State aforesaid being, sober, of body but of sound and perfect memory, do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament, and do by these presents revoke all others.

First. It is my will and desire that after all my just and lawful debts are paid, that what property I may be possessed of shall be sold, and be devised in the following manner, (to wit)
I give and bequeath to Richard Lloyd in trust and for the benefit and support of Mary Ann Dorsey all the household and kitchen furniture that is in the house now occupied by her, and the amount due and by her.

I give and bequeath to my half sister, Jane Long residing in the County of Salem State of New Jersey, five hundred dollars.

I give and bequeath the balance of what I may be possessed of tion (own) sisters Sarah Hains and Elizabeth Shoemaker, to be equally divided (their residence is in the State of Ohio)

It is my will that all my property should be sold, with the exception of that part, that is bequeathed to Richard Lloyd for the above purposes.

I do hereby constitute and appoint my friends Richard Lloyd and John Cowan Executors to this my last Will & Testament, in witness whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name this 10th, October, 1817.

Witness
John Cowan

Jon. S. Long. (Seal)

New Hanover County, } County Court Nov^r Term 1817

The within Will of Jonathan S. Long was exhibited in open court and proved by John Cowan subscribing witness, and ordered to be recorded.

Witness

Thos^d H. Davis. Cky

In the name of God Amen. I, James Laroque of the town of Wilmington and State of North Carolina, being of sound and perfect mind and memory (blessed be God) do this twenty seventh day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eight, make and publish this my last Will and Testament in manner following, that is to say,
First. I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Nancy Laroque one horse chair, and harness, two beds with curtains, bedsteads & furniture complete, and all my household and kitchen furniture of every description that I possess. all my plate viz, two candlesticks, one coffee pot, one pitcher, one wash hand basin, one soup spoon, one punch ladle, seven table spoons, all my coffee and tea spoons, seven forks and four fruit knives and two silver boxes, two gold watches and one gold chain, also my gold headed cane. I also give unto my beloved wife Nancy Laroque, all my book, debts, notes hereafter, possess, excepting such property as is hereafter disposed of. It is my will and desire that all my medicine and every thing belonging to my shop, including a mahogany box & the instruments it contains, and all my books shall be sold, and that all my lawful debts shall be paid out of the money arising of the aforesaid sales, and the remainder of the aforesaid sales to be equally divided between my wife Nancy Laroque and my son James Laroque. I also give and bequeath unto my son James Laroque all the household furniture that I lent him and is now in his possession.