

testator declared the same to be his last will and testament and requested me, and the other witness Schofer to sign the same as witnesses. We both signed our names as above as witnesses to said will in the presence of the said Charles C. Deight, the signatures of the said testator & witnesses, being made at the same time. I further state that I am well acquainted with the other witness F. M. Schofer, and with all his friends and relatives in this country, that he went to the war, and was in the service during the war, as is generally reported among all his friends and relatives. That he lived with me formerly to residing, but that he has never returned home, but is believed by all who know him to be dead.

Wm. Pott

Given to and Subscribed before me Moody B. Smith (to whom it was given that said witness was Wm. Pott, as he furnished by the said Wm. Pott on this the 17th day of January 1866,

Moody B. Smith
Commissioner

State of North Carolina New Hanover County

In the name of God Amen: I Nancy Quince being of sound and disposing mind, and memory, blessed be God and being aware of the certainty of death, and the uncertainty of life, do make, publish, and declare this to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking all other wills by me at any time heretofore made.

I give and devise to my two grand children Joseph Harris and Elizabeth Harris the undivided Western half of lot No. 1 in Block No. 88, according to the plan of the Town of Wilmington, situate in said town on Church and Third Streets to them, and their heirs forever.

I give and devise to Eliza Quince the Eastern half of said lot of land, with all improvements, and appurtenances to have, and to hold during the term of her natural life, and after the death of said Eliza Quince, I give and devise the said Eastern half of said lot to her Cousin John Smith to have and his heirs forever.

In testimony whereof, I the said Nancy Quince have hereunto set my hand and seal, this 28th day of November in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and sixty

signed, and sealed by the testator

Nancy Quince, who published and declared the same as her last will and testament, in our presence, and we subscribed the same in her presence, and in the presence of each other at her request as witnesses thereto

 R. R. Wood for Nancy & Guineo
 H. Gordon Test

State of North Carolina

New Hanover County Court March Term 1865

This paper writing, purporting to be the last will and testament of Nancy Guineo deceased, is exhibited for probate in open Court, and the due execution thereof by the said Nancy Guineo is proved by the oath and examination of R. R. Wood for, and H. Gordon, the subscribing witnesses thereto. It is therefore considered by the Court that the said paper writing, and every part thereof, is the last will and testament of the said Nancy Guineo, and the same is ordered to be recorded and filed

Teste

R. R. Wood for Clerk

State of North Carolina

Wilmington. In the name of God - Amen - This my last Will and Testament, revoking all others by me at any time heretofore made.

I give devise and bequeath unto my beloved wife Annie M. Miller, all of my estate, both real, personal, and mixed. In the event she marries again then my said Estate is to be equally divided with my said wife, and all of my Children share equally and alike. After her death, that is the death of my said wife, all of my said estate, real personal and mixed, I devise and bequeath unto my Children, and the part or portions, which each one shall get or receive, shall be at the will and discretion of my said wife Annie, to be determined by her in her will, and in the event she makes no will then they are to share equally and alike. I hereby give to my wife Annie M. Miller, whom I constitute my executor to this my last will and testament. I give to her the full right to sell any part or portion of my ~~and~~ estate, real, personal, or mixed, and to make good and sufficient, and legal title to the same to the purchaser and to use her discretion in so doing.

In witness whereof I do hereunto set my hand and seal this nineteenth day of August in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and sixty one.

Signed, sealed, published & declared to be the last Will & testament of Thomas C. Miller in the presence of each of us, who sign it as witnesses at his request & in his presence, and he signed the same in the presence of each of us.

Thos. C. Miller Test

U.S. Inter. Rev. str. and to p. 25. - place on probate