I do certify, that William Walker, and John Walker, personally, appeared before me and made oath, that Robert Lockman of this County, dec^d, on the 24th day of October, 1794, and made a verbal will and left two hundred acres of land to Jane Walker, daughter of William Walker, given under my hand this 27th day of October, 1794.

James Lockman. J.P.

The aforesaid last Will and Testament of Robert Lockman dec^d in Court and admitted to probate at November Term 1794.

In the name of God Amen. I Thomas Cunningham of Wilmington, Planter, being of sound health, memory and understanding, praised be to the disposer of all events, knowing the certainty of death, and the uncertainty of the time thereof. Do make this my last Will and Testament.

Imprimis. I will and devise that all my just debts and funeral charges be first paid and duly satisfied; then I will and devise the rest and residue of my real and personal estate as follows.

Item. It is my will and devise, that, five feet of an alley, be left from Trout Street to low water mark, as convenient, as near as to the after, bequeathed lot. Then I will and devise that forty feet back including the house where Mr Joshua Potts is now a resident of, at the expiration of the lease, be rented for the maintenance of a negro woman of mind named Rachel, and the maintenance and education of her three mulattos children named Mary, Kitty and Shippy, and the child of which she is now pregnant.

I will and devise unto Mary Kirkwood, eighty feet fronting the alley, and running twenty eight feet including the house on said lot where Daniel Duffie is now a resident to her and her heirs.

Item. I will and devise to Annia Jean Kirkwood, thirty feet fronting the alley and twenty eight feet back, being part of the already mentioned lot, to her and her heirs.

Item. I will and devise unto Robert Neal Kirkwood, son of the late John Kirkwood, father to Mary and Annia Jean already mentioned, fifty acres of land on Lee's creek, lying between Jerry Toomer's land, and the plantation where I now occupy, beginning at a gum on said Toomer's land, and running along his line two hundred and fifty two poles to three pines, to him and his heirs.

Item. I give and devise to Elizabeth Robeson, thirty feet fronting
