

probate in open Court, by Mary T. Gonto, the executrix therein named, and the due execution thereof by the said David A. Gonto, is proved by the oath and examination of H. H. Robinson, one of the subscribing witnesses thereto. It is therefore considered by the Court that the said paper writing, and every part thereof, is the last will and testament of the said David A. Gonto, and the same is ordered to be recorded and filed. And thereupon the said Mary T. Gonto, executrix as aforesaid, duly qualifies as such, by taking the oath required by law.

Last will and testament of William Capers Freeman of County and State aforesaid

William Capers Freeman being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make, ordain and declare this to be my last will and testament hereby revoking any wills or wills by me at any time heretofore made.

Item 1st I will and desire that all just debts at the time of my death, and my funeral expenses be first paid out of my estate.

Item 2nd I give, devise and bequeath my whole estate real and personal, including my interest under the will of my grand-mother Mrs. Doomer, as well as my interest or share of the estate of my mother, the late Mrs. Mary F. Tradewell, the whole and all of the same, to my wife Sallie J. Freeman to be her's forever. And should I die and leave no issue, then she may dispose of the same, as she may desire or as seemeth to her best. I nominate constitute and appoint my friend J. C. Miller of Wilmington North Carolina Executor of this my last will and testament.

In witness whereof I have hereunto affixed my hand and set my seal this 6th day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty one

W. C. Freeman (seal)

Signed sealed and published and declared by the testator William C. Freeman to be his last will and testament in our presence, who in his presence at his request, and in presence of each other, have subscribed our names as witnesses thereto.

State of North Carolina
New Hanover County Court, December Term 1866.
This paper writing, heretofore, to wit, at June term last of this Court, propounded for probate as the will and testament of William C. Freeman, by Sallie J. Freeman, the legatee and devisee therein named, is now produced in open Court, and the due execution thereof by the said William C. Freeman, is proved by the oath and examination of Annie W. Miller one of the subscribing witnesses thereto. It is therefore considered by the Court that the said paper writing, and every part thereof is the last will and testament of the said William C. Freeman and the same is ordered to be recorded and filed -
