Before the second Day 1792

In the name of God amen I Morris Floyds of the County of Northampton and State of North Carolina being here in South of body but of sound mind memory willing to mind the mortality of my body and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament by God of all I now own my Soul into the Hands of all Creator with a true and certain hope of a future resurrection and my body I recommend to the earth to be buried in a Christian like manner, without doubting but at the general resurrection I shall revive the same again by the mighty power of God and as touching such worldly estate as has pleased God to bestow upon me I devise and dispose of in the following manner. Viz

I have and bequeath to my beloved wife Mary the plantation whereon I now live, two beds and furniture, and all the other furniture belonging to my House, during her life. —

L

Then to my Daughter Annamaria a certain tract of land bounded as follows beginning at a place at the River in Landings bounded thereon running along the South side of my farm to the road, all the land on the South side of the road but not crossing the road to the said her share of land.

I have and bequeath to my beloved wife Mary a Negro woman named Sarah and three children, namely: Elisha, Sarah & Elizabeth to her during her life and after her death to be equally divided amongst all my Children viz: Thomas Floyds, Edward Floyds, Andrew Floyds, William Floyds, Charles Floyds, James Floyds, Isaac Floyds, Amos Floyds, and Allen Floyds. —

I have and bequeath to my beloved wife Mary and my Son Morris Floyds, I do hereby utterly disavow, revoke and disown all and every former Testament, Will, bequest, bequest, bequest by me in any wise made or intended, written and by word of mouth and confirm this to be my last Will and as then. In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my Hand and Seal, Witness my Hand and Seal.
