

Hardamon Abington's Will. In the name of God Amen.
I Hardamon Abington of the County of Northampton and State of North Carolina being weak in body but of sound mind and memory do make by publish this to be my last Will and Testament in manner and form following—

My will and desire is that all my estate be kept together in a common stock under the direction of my executors hereafter to be named, until the expiration of the year one thousand eight hundred and fifteen; and that they pay out of the profits arising from said estate, such lawful debts as may from time to time come against it; and after the expiration of the said term I give and bequeath unto my daughter Clarissa Briggs the sum of five shillings North Carolina Currency.

Item. After the expiration of the above term I then give devise & bequeath unto my two sons James Abington and Henry Abington all the remaining part of my estate both real and personal to be divided between them share and share alike, to them and their heirs forever. But if either of my said sons should die without a lawful heir, then and in that case it is my will that the surviving son should heir all my real & personal estate to him and his heirs forever. And I do hereby nominate & appoint my two sons James Abington and Henry Abington whole and sole executors to this my last Will and Testament. In witness whereof I the said Hardamon Abington have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this day of July 1815.
